Japanese Accuse Dulles of Threat To Seize Okinawa

TOKYO (AP)—Some Japanese officials and newspapers today accused Secretary of State Dulles of threatening to take over Okinawa if Japan gives Russia the southern Kurile Islands of Kunashiri and Etorofu.

Others said he was trying to help the Japanese in their peace treaty negotiations with the Russians.

Dulles told his press conference in Washington Tuesday he had "reminded" the Japanese government and Foreign Minister Matsu Shigemitsu that nations which have signed the San Francisco peace treaty could make new claims on Japan should Russia gain more than the San Francisco signers did.

Such additional claims are provided for in a clause of the San Francisco treaty, Dulles said he "merely reminded" the Japanese of the existence of that clause. I did not attempt to indicate what its operation would be or that in fact it would be invoked.

The United States currently occupies Okinawa as a military base but recognizes Japan's residual sovereignty over the island.

The Soviet-Japanese treaty negotiations have been deadlocked for months over Russia's refusal to return the two Kurile islands closest to Japan, occupied by the Russians after World War II.

Traffic Signal Change Pushed

Motorists Urged To Use Caution

Drivers will have to use a little extra caution for the next couple of days while the traffic lights on Court St. are taken down for reconditioning and painting and while the present traffic control system is being replaced with one of the latest approved systems.

The present lights are to be used in the new system, City Manager James F. Parkinson said, to save the city about $2,000.

However, he added, they are to be reconditioned before they are put back in place. This work is being done by city firemen.

Each light will be down and out of commission for less than a day if everything goes according to plan, the city manager said. They are being taken down in the morning with the intention of completing the reconditioning and getting them back up before night.

The first of them—there are only four along Court St.—was down Wednesday.

PARKINSON said the police department will assign an officer to the intersections to direct traffic as often and as long as they can be spared from regular duty.

Meanwhile, he said, drivers will have to exercise greater caution on approaching the intersections when the lights are not operating.

Whether the other traffic lights in the city will be given the same reconditioning is still uncertain. Those on Fourth St. were given the going - over, Parkinson said, because they had to be taken down anyway while the cables and steel poles from which they are swung over the intersection are replaced and strengthened as a part of the installation of the new system.

Parkinson commented that the present cables "must be nearly 25 years old . . . and we wouldn't want one of them to break and drop a traffic light on some passing car."

CABLES AND POLES supporting the other 18 traffic lights in the city have not been in use so long and are considered more substantial. Four of these are at intersections on Market St.; four on Temple St.; one at Paint and North Sts.; on Washington Ave. at Mc-

By Wash Fayette

In a sizeable addition to the city of Detroit, Mich., laid out in 1914, the main street is called "Fayette Avenue" and I'll bet not a resident in the whole addition knows that it was named after Fayette County, Ohio.

It is the "Little Garden Farm Addition", a subdivision which was planned and developed by Daniel B. Wendel, former Washington C. H. resident who got quite a kick out of naming the principal street after his native county.

Two Washington C. H. residents, Ray Maynard and Jay Kelley, recently saw what is said to be the original painting of the "Spirit of '76", painted in 1786 by Archibald M. Willard, who is credited with painting the murals in the Fayette County Courthouse.

The two men, with Judge Max G. Dice, who were guests of Maynard Craig at Gloucester, Mass., recently drove to Marblehead, Mass., one day and went to Abbott Hall where the famous painting is housed.

It was presented to the town of Marblehead by Gen. J. H. Devereux, whose son is pictured in the painting as a wounded soldier lying on the ground at the feet of the two drummers and fifer.

The original, in a heavy frame is about six feet wide and 10 feet tall, Maynard said. It is still the center of public attention, he said.

Budget Report Sees Tax Cut Chances Slim

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new federal budget estimate, boosting the anticipated surplus to a modest 700 million dollars, today left little ground for hope of tax cuts in 1957.

One high administration source said the black-ink margin now foreseeable for fiscal 1957 "is still too narrow to justify any reduction."

The mid-year budget review, issued Tuesday night by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Budget Director Percival F. Brundage, showed estimated revenues soaring to $69,800,000,000, up $4,300,000,000 from the government income forecast by President Eisenhower in his January budget message to Congress.

But it also showed federal spending amounting to a peacetime record of $69,100,000,000 in the year which started July 1.

That is four billion dollars beyond Eisenhower's spending estimate and absorbs most of the revenue gains arising from unparalleled national income and boom-level corporate profits.

The result is that the anticipated surplus, figured in January to be a little more than 400 million dollars, now is reckoned at 700 million dollars.

But that figure is much less than the fiscal 1956 surplus of $1,754,000,000 which the administration considered too small to justify tax cuts this year.

A year ago, the administration foresaw no such surplus, but instead a deficit of $1,700,000,000 for 1956. But business conditions turned out to be much better than they anticipated then.

Fugitive Shot by Cincy Policeman

CINCINNATI (AP)—Thomas Bradley, 31, was shot fatally today by a policeman after he reportedly wielded a knife and then fled to obey a command to stop running.

Patrolman Dan Downing fired the shot which felled the man, a former convict. Police Sgt. Don Hopewell said Downing and Patrolman Harold Klopp forced Bradley's automobile to the curb after the man had driven through a stop sign.

When Downing asked to see his driver's license, Bradley reportedly struck the officer and slashed at him with a knife before starting to run.

Miami Trace Board Accepts Invitation to WCH Meeting

The Miami Trace District Board of Education has accepted an invitation issued by the Washington C. H. board for a joint meeting to discuss openings for "around 76" tuition students at Washington High School this fall.

Taylor Groff, president of the Miami Trace unit, said Wednesday that he had informed W. A. Smith, superintendent of city schools, that members of the Miami Trace board would meet with the city board Thursday night. Groff said he was uncertain whether all members of the Miami Trace board would be able to attend since at least one is out of the city.

The city board's invitation followed a meeting Monday night at which it was agreed that it could accept "a limited number of high school students" this fall on the basis of newly completed figures on high school enrollment and classroom distribution.

Cairo's Spy Charges Stir Fresh Unrest Over Canal

London Suggests Nasser Trying Propaganda

Still No Word From Egyptian President About Conference

LONDON (AP)—Egypt pushed a fresh anti-British campaign today amid suspicion in London that President Nasser is adopting a new tack in the Suez Canal dispute.

British newspapers and officials generally linked Egypt's expulsion of two British diplomats on spy charges—denied by Prime Minister Eden's government—with the controversy over the Egyptian President's nationalization of the vital waterway.

The British press speculated that Nasser had set off the spy charges to counter any thought among his people that he is backing down in the canal dispute by agreeing to see the five-nation Suez Canal committee headed by Australia's Prime minister Robert G. Menzies.

Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard said the Egyptian government, whatever its motive, has created "a grave new situation bound to prejudice negotiations about the future of the canal."

The Menzies committee waited anxiously for the Egyptian leader to fix a time and place to hear their arguments in favor of putting the canal under international control. Nasser agreed Tuesday to get together with the group but did not suggest details of the meeting.

Menzies rushed another message to Cairo suggesting talks later this week in the Egyptian capital.

BRITONS WERE angered at the spy charges from Nasser's government, coming at a time when other nations were concentrating on a peaceful settlement of the canal issue.

Egypt charged that two secretaries in the British embassy in Cairo—Visa Officer James Gove and Commercial Attache John Flux—were the "contacts" for two British civilians arrested early this week on espionage charges.

The British Foreign Office denied the charges but said it had no choice but to recall the two diplomats. Sir Humphrey Trevelyan, British ambassador in Cairo, immediately made a strong protest.

U. S. Observers Say Russia Plays Dangerous Suez Game

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials believe that Russia is playing a tricky and dangerous game of Middle Eastern politics by campaigning against international operation of the Suez Canal.

The danger lies in the increased risk of military conflict if the Soviets should prod Egyptian President Nasser into rejecting any satisfactory settlement with the Western powers.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference Tuesday that Soviet propaganda to Egypt was denouncing the international operation and "colonialism."

Obviously, Dulles said, "the effect of that—presumably the intended effect—was to make it as difficult as possible for President Nasser to accept. Nevertheless, I do believe that President Nasser has a sufficient influence and authority to accept a fair plan."

Nasser agreed Tuesday to meet with a committee which will carry to him the internationalization proposal adopted by last week's 22-nation conference in London.

But Nasser did not commit himself to accept the Western-sponsored proposal or even to use it as a basis of negotiation.

WEEKS OR perhaps months of negotiation may be necessary to determine the eventual outcome. There is yet no indication what Nasser considers a fair plan.

Although three Far Eastern nations joined Russia in voting against the plan at the London conference, Dulles said all the nations except Russia "were really trying to find a way to a peaceful and fair solution."

Diplomatic experts said the Russian game apparently is to

Picture Admitted Baby Slayer As a Psychological Problem

By SAUL PETT

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—She laughed a lot. She talked a great deal. She ate "constantly," and displayed a child's passion for ice cream and soda pop.

But beneath the pretense of chatty cheerfulness, there were telltale signs of a woman acutely embarrassed by her inordinate size, a lonely woman who seemed to have no life of her own and tried to enjoy vicariously the lives of her temporary employers.

This was the picture slowly emerging today of Virginia Jaspers, the six-foot, 220-pound baby nurse, who told police she shook three infants to death and injured two others in fits of "uncontrollable" temper.

While the big, blonde woman, woman, herself still baby-faced at 33, remained in County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond, authorities continued to investigate the strange case. There was much to investigate.

Coroner James J. Corrigan said he would study the death certificates of every child under one year who died in the New Haven area since 1953. Miss Jasper has been known to care for newly born babies in private homes at least since 1948—possibly farther back than that.

But parents whose children were once cared for by Miss Jaspers, said they had no reason to suspect her ability or motives at the time. One was Mrs. Allen Hubbard, whose 13-day-old daughter died in 1948 while under Miss Jaspers' care.

Until Monday, Mrs. Hubbard knew only what her doctor had told her then—that the child died of a cerebral hemorrhage apparently caused by a congenital weakness. Monday, she learned of Miss Jaspers' statement to police—that the Hubbard child was one of three she shook with fatal results.

"Now I don't know what to think," Mrs. Hubbard said. "I have to admit that at the time she handled the baby well. We even had her for our second child. 'True, she was heavy-handed. When she burped the baby, she seemed a little strong. I remember we kidded her about it a few times but thought nothing serious about it."

"Apart from her handling of the baby, she seemed immature. She had this childish delight in eating, especially ice cream and soda."

INVESTIGATE OTHER BABY DEATHS — Six Foot, 260 pound Virginia Jaspers is being taken for a quizzing session after she admitted killing three babies - an 11-day-old girl, a three-month-old girl in 1948 and another infant about 1951. The New Haven, Conn., coroner, James Corrigan is launching an inquest to find out if the 33-year-old pediatric nurse is accountable for the deaths of any other infants assigned to her care in the last 12 years.

Trio Held to Grand Jury In Wreck Yard Robbery

Three Fayette County men, who confessed participating in the robbery of the Washington Wrecking Yard office on Columbus Ave. Monday night, were held to the grand jury Wednesday under $1,000 bond each.

They were charged with breaking and entering.

Failing to furnish the required bond, they were transferred to the county jail to await action of the grand jury which meets Sept. 10.

The three are Lester Shoemaker, 19, Route 3, who had served time for robbing the place before; Robert Williamson, 20, and Charles Wheeler, 19, both of Milledgeville.

WILLIAMSON TOLD police that he was asleep in the car while his two companions burglarized the wrecking yard and carried off $42,09, nearly all in silver coins.

The trio was arrested in Chillicothe within four hours after the burglary here, and admitted the crime.

Smith, of Springfield, is accused of slaying James Nichols, 33, also of Springfield, in the prison yard last Monday. Nichols died after being hit over the head with a hammer.

Stevenson Seeks Farm Ideas In Conference in Sioux City

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said after his arrival here today for a conference with Democratic party leaders from seven midwest states that only the Democratic party is concerned with how the farmer is getting along.

The Democratic presidential candidate and Sen. Estes Kefauver, his vice presidential running mate, reached here after a 2,700 mile flight that started at Santa Fe, N. M., and included a political foray into the Pacific northwest.

Clayton Fritchey, Stevenson's press secretary, said it was believed to be a new record for a single day's campaigning. The Democratic standard bearer put in between 21 and 22 hours of traveling, handshaking and speaking.

Called into closed conference here were party leaders from Iowa, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

It marked the third strategy huddle held by Stevenson and Kefauver in as many days.

Stevenson, in a statement issued after his arrival, started right in to woo farm votes.

More Plotters In Riesel Case Held by FBI

Details of Telvi's Role Outlined by Federal Attorney

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI today held racketeer Johnny Dio and three other hoodlums as plotters of the acid blinding of Victor Riesel, labor columnist.

Their motive was to intimidate Riesel from testifying on labor racketeering before a federal grand jury, said U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams.

Williams said a "punk"—Abraham Telvi—was hired for $500 to hurl the acid and was slain after he demanded $50,000 for the job.

"When Telvi first was approached and got the job to throw the acid he thought it was a man named 'Marshall' and that it was only a husband and wife job, and worth only $500," Williams told newsmen.

"When Gendolfo Miranti, one of the accused conspirators, fingered Mr. Riesel, Telvi then knew who the victim was. He then went back and asked for more money."

"Telvi was just a punk and some of the co-conspirators said the job was worth $50,000 and they said Telvi had been used. Then Telvi sent word back to Dio, and Dio did give him more."

RIESEL WAS blinded April 2 when acid was tossed in his face outside a Broadway restaurant. Telvi was found shot to death July 28 in an East Side street.

After the arrests Tuesday, Williams said:

"Johnny Dio, among others, was the man who directed, instigated and arranged the payoff to Telvi in the acid attack on Victor Riesel. This is in direct relation to Riesel's planned testimony about labor racketeering before the federal grand jury."

Picked up elsewhere were Thomas Dioguardi, 40, his brother and an executive in a cotton goods firm; Domenico Bando, 47, a Brooklyn baker; and Charles Tusso, 44, a garment worker. All have long criminal records.

A fifth man, Charles Carlino, 45, also was charged Tuesday with conspiracy. He was arrested Aug. 18 and held in $100,000 bond as a material witness.

Two other alleged conspirators in the attack were arrested Aug. 17. They are Joseph P. Carlino, 43, who is not related to Charles, and Gendolfo Miranti, 37.

THE FBI gave this account of how the gang allegedly mapped out and executed the attack:

Johnny Dio and Tusso met with Miranti at his candy store a few days before the attack. Miranti then got in touch with Bando, who, through Joseph Carlino, procured the services of Telvi.

After the attack, Miranti hurried to a meeting with the two Dios and Tusso. He reported to them that the job had been done.

But he had some bad news. Some of the sulphuric acid aimed at Riesel's eyes had splashed on Telvi's face.

Miranti was therefore ordered to make certain Telvi did not run to a doctor for treatment.

The FBI has said Telvi was later wiped out because his acid-marked face made him a living, tell-tale link to the crime.

COLUMBUS (AP)—Investigators today planned to take the facts of an Ohio penitentiary slaying direct to the Franklin County grand jury's September session.

Both Capt. F. C. Moon, head of the state highway patrol's investigation division, and officials of the county prosecutor's office, said they planned to ask for a first degree murder indictment against Glenn Smith, 23.

Smith, of Springfield, is accused of slaying James Nichols, 33, also of Springfield, in the prison yard last Monday. Nichols died after being hit over the head with a hammer.

Stevenson Seeks Farm Ideas In Conference in Sioux City

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said after his arrival here today for a conference with Democratic party leaders from seven midwest states that only the Democratic party is concerned with how the farmer is getting along.

The Democratic presidential candidate and Sen. Estes Kefauver, his vice presidential running mate, reached here after a 2,700 mile flight that started at Santa Fe, N. M., and included a political foray into the Pacific northwest.

Clayton Fritchey, Stevenson's press secretary, said it was believed to be a new record for a single day's campaigning. The Democratic standard bearer put in between 21 and 22 hours of traveling, handshaking and speaking.

Called into closed conference here were party leaders from Iowa, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

It marked the third strategy huddle held by Stevenson and Kefauver in as many days.

Stevenson, in a statement issued after his arrival, started right in to woo farm votes.

"Historically," he said, "the American farmer has gotten into trouble when the Republicans were in the White House. And he has prospered under Democratic leadership."

Sen. Humphrey (D - Minn.) and Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota were listed as co-chairmen of the conference at which Stevenson said he and Kefauver wanted to get suggestions on what they should do to help the farmer "when we get to Washington next January."

The Democratic standard bearers held a closed conference in Vancouver, Wash., late Tuesday with about 225 party leaders from Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho and Utah.

It was the second and their regional strategy huddles in a fast-moving tour to key areas. The first conference was held in Santa Fe, N. M., Monday.

Stevenson and Kefauver flew into Portland, Ore., to launch their foray into the Pacific northwest and immediately charged the Eisenhower administration with giving away precious natural resources to the favored few instead of developing them for all the people.

More Plotters In Riesel Case Held by FBI

Details of Telvi's Role Outlined by Federal Attorney

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI today held racketeer Johnny Dio and three other hoodlums as plotters of the acid blinding of Victor Riesel, labor columnist.

Their motive was to intimidate Riesel from testifying on labor racketeering before a federal grand jury, said U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams.

Williams said a "punk"—Abraham Telvi—was hired for $500 to hurl the acid and was slain after he demanded $50,000 for the job.

"When Telvi first was approached and got the job to throw the acid he thought it was a man named 'Marshall' and that it was only a husband and wife job, and worth only $500," Williams told newsmen.

"When Gondolfo Miranti, one of the accused conspirators, fingered Mr. Riesel, Telvi then knew who the victim was. He then went back and asked for more money."

"Telvi was just a punk and some of the co-conspirators said the job was worth $50,000 and they said Telvi had been used. Then Telvi sent word back to Dio, and Dio did give him more."

RIESEL WAS blinded April 1 when acid was tossed in his face outside a Broadway restaurant. Telvi was found shot to death July 28 in an East Side street.

After the arrests Tuesday, Williams said:

"Johnny Dio, among others, was the man who directed, instigated and arranged the payoff to Telvi in the acid attack on Victor Riesel. This is in direct relation to Riesel's planned testimony about labor racketeering before the federal grand jury."

Picked up elsewhere were Thomas Dioguardi, 40, his brother and an executive in a cotton goods firm; Domenico Bando, 47, a Brooklyn baker; and Charles Tusso, 44, a garment worker. All have long criminal records.

A fifth man, Charles Carlinio, 43, also was charged Tuesday with conspiracy. He was arrested Aug. 18 and held in $100,000 bond as a material witness.

Two other alleged conspirators in the attack were arrested Aug. 17. They are Joseph P. Carlinio, 43, who is not related to Charles, and Gonfolio Miranti, 37.

THE FBI gave this account of how the gang allegedly mapped out and executed the attack:

Johnny Dio and Tusso met with Miranti at his candy store a few days before the attack. Miranti then got in touch with Bando, who, through Joseph Carlinio, procured the services of Telvi.

After the attack, Miranti hurried to a meeting with the two Dios and Tusso. He reported to them that the job had been done.

But he had some bad news. Some of the sulphuric acid aimed at Riesel's eyes had splashed on Telvi's face.

Miranti was therefore ordered to make certain Telvi did not run to a doctor for treatment.

The FBI has said Telvi was later wiped out because his acid-marked face made him a living, tell-tale link to the crime.

County Budget Now in Making

Public Hearing To Be in Near Future

Fayette County's 1957 budget is now in the making, but it probably will be three weeks before the preliminary draft is completed.

The Budget Commission has spent the biggest part of the last two days studying the individual budgets submitted to it by the 17 subdivisions in the county and by noon Wednesday was within sight of the end of this first phase of its chore.

Later a public hearing is to be held on the budgets of each of the subdivisions. Official representatives are to attend these hearings, but they also are open to the public.

Individual budgets have been submitted by each of the ten townships, the two school districts and the five municipalities. The school districts are the Miami Trace and Washington C. H. and the five municipalities are Bloomington, Jeffersonville, Milledgeville, Octa and Washington C. H.

AFTER THE Budget Commission completes its study of the 17 individual budgets and holds a hearing on each of them, it will then prepare a preliminary draft of the budget for the county as a whole. This will be submitted to the Department of Public Affairs of the state Department of Taxation for approval, or revision.

The preliminary draft must be completed by Sept. 20. The hearings are expected to start within a couple of weeks.

The county's budget for this year was $1,355,649.18, but County Auditor Harry Allen said the Budget Commission had not yet gotten far enough along with its study of the individual budgets to estimate what the total county budget for next year will be.

On the Budget Commission are Auditor Allen, Treasurer Charles A. Fabb and Prosecutor John Bath. Edwin Ducey, who lives here, one of the staff of the Department of Public Affairs, has been meeting with the commission much of the time as a consultant.

Both mothers said that the nurse spent virtually all her off-duty hours either eating or conversing with their guests.

Jury Indicts LaMarca on Kidnap Charge

MINEOLA, N. Y. (U.P.)—Angelo John LaMarca, 31-year-old mechanic, was indicted today for kidnapping and felony murder of little Peter Weinberger.

The Nassau County grand jury acted quickly, returning the indictment just two hours after starting deliberations.

The child's grief-stricken mother, Mrs. Betty Weinberger, and several investigators were called into the jury room in swift succession to testify.

The charge of felony murder is technically different from a first degree murder charge. It charges the death of a person during commission of a felony—in this case kidnapping.

A jury may recommend mercy with a conviction of felony murder, contrasted to a mandatory death sentence for first degree murder.

A conviction for kidnapping, under state law, may include the death penalty if it is proved the victim died as a direct result of the kidnapping.

The Weinberger boy was snatched July 4 from his carriage in the yard of the family's home in Westbury.

The FBI announced arrest of LaMarca Aug. 21 and turned him over to county officials. The infant's body was found the next day, in a thicket near a rural road. The mother identified clothing as that of her son.

One of the defendant's two lawyers, David Markowitz, said he expected LaMarca to enter a plea of temporary insanity "caused by his desperation over debts."

Cairo Spy Charges

Sharp retaliatory action was expected from Britain. Prime Minister Eden met with Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The general expectation was that Britain would kick out two Egyptian diplomats in retaliation.

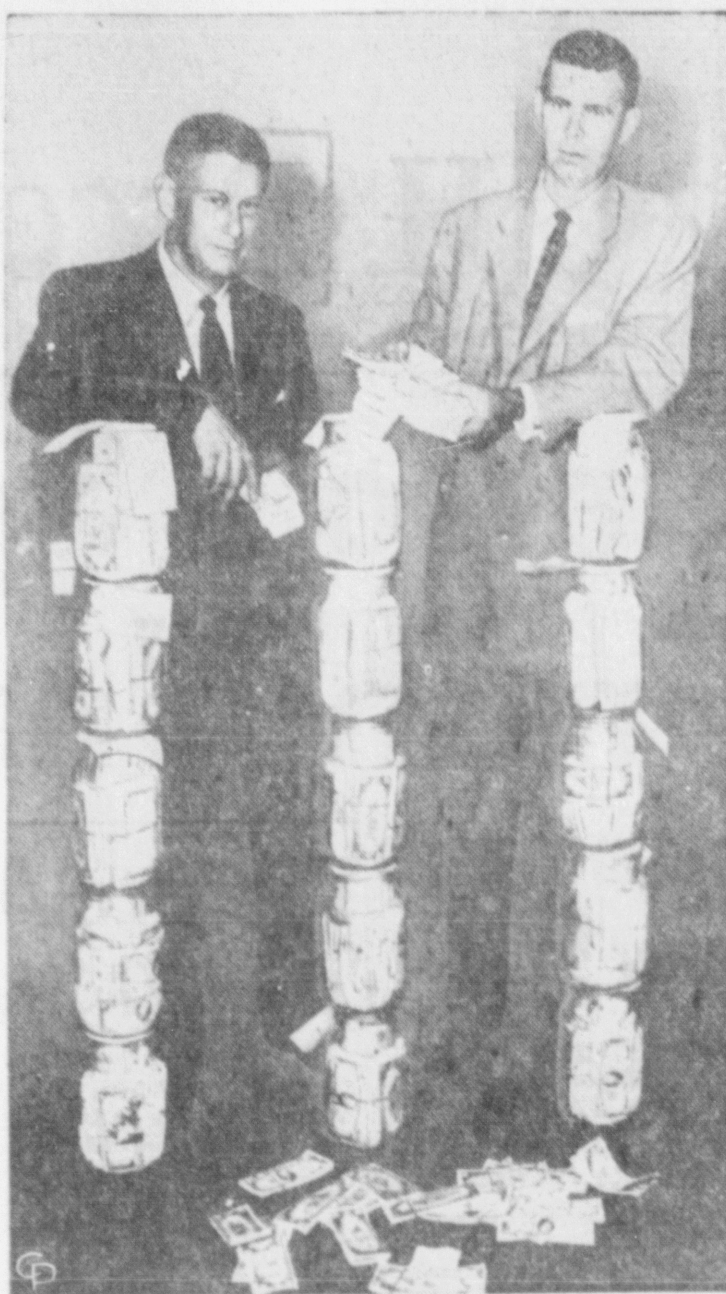

The London Daily Mail reported a move under way for a Western combine of nations to buy or lease the canal from Egypt, with much of the money to come from the World Bank.

The Mail says Egypt could use the money—reportedly somewhere between 200 million and 500 million dollars—to build the Aswan high dam.

Nasser said he nationalized the canal to get the money for the billion-dollar dam on the Upper Nile after the United States and Britain withdrew their offers to help finance the project.

Recover Second Body in Area Where U. S. Plane Shot Down

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The Navy today announced recovery of the second body of a crewman of the patrol plane which was shot down off the China coast last Thursday.

The first body was found Friday in an area about 90 miles southeast of Shanghai and near the eastern fringe of the islands which flank the South China coast.

A brief message from the 7th Fleet, charged with search operations in the area, said that the body of the second crew member was found by a U. S. destroyer in the general vicinity where bits of wreckage and the first body were previously recovered.

The crewman was not identified.

The Navy Mercator plane had 16 men aboard. Communist China admits having shot down a plane the same day the U. S. craft went down, but says it attacked a Chinese Nationalist aircraft.

President Eisenhower discussed the incident this morning with Secretary of State Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The White House did not announce the results of the discussion.

Dulles said afterwards that investigation of the incident was a complicated, time-consuming process involving the identification of plane fragments and debris and measurements of currents and tides.

State Department officials have taken the position that they need more information before deciding what course of action to take in the affair.

Meanwhile, they were reported considering making public the text of a note from Peiping concerning the incident. The note, disclosed by Dulles Tuesday, was described by some informants as nonbelligerent in tone and even containing a provisional apology.

While the Reds asserted that the aircraft they attacked was Chinese Nationalist they reportedly said also that if it turned out to be an American plane they were sorry about the incident.

Jersey Chief Seen Charmed By Ohio Girl

TRENTON, N. J. (U.P.)—Robert B. Meyner, the bachelor governor of New Jersey, has left newsmen with the impression he's definitely interested in the young lady he's currently dating—Helen Stevenson.

The 48-year-old governor enjoyed himself at a press conference Tuesday fielding questions tossed his way about the tall, 28-year-old brunette.

Meyner dated Margaret Truman before her marriage last spring, for example, but always insisted "we're good friends."

He laughed heartily when the subject turned to Miss Stevenson at Tuesday's session and his eyes danced from one questioner to another.

"Are you planning to see her again?" one newsmen asked. "Foolish question," Meyner chortled.

Miss Stevenson's father is President William Stevenson of Oberlin College in Ohio. Among the things she and Meyner share in common is a liking for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, a distant cousin of hers.

Meyner escorted Miss Stevenson to a summer stock production of the Broadway musical comedy "Plain and Fancy" at Neptune on Monday night.

Steel plates are being welded to the base of the poles, extending a short distance below the surface of the concrete, which has been chiseled away and also for a foot or so above the surface.

This is being done because it was found that the poles were rusting away above and just below the surface of the concrete.

Waterproof material will be applied to the base of the poles and the concrete replaced.

The FBI announced arrest of LaMarca Aug. 21 and turned him over to county officials. The infant's body was found the next day, in a thick net near a rural road. The mother identified clothing as that of her son.

One of the defendant's two lawyers, David Markowitz, said he expected LaMarca to enter a plea of temporary insanity "caused by his desperation over debts."

Sharp retaliatory action was expected from Britain. Prime Minister Eden met with Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The general expectation was that Britain would kick out two Egyptian diplomats in retaliation.

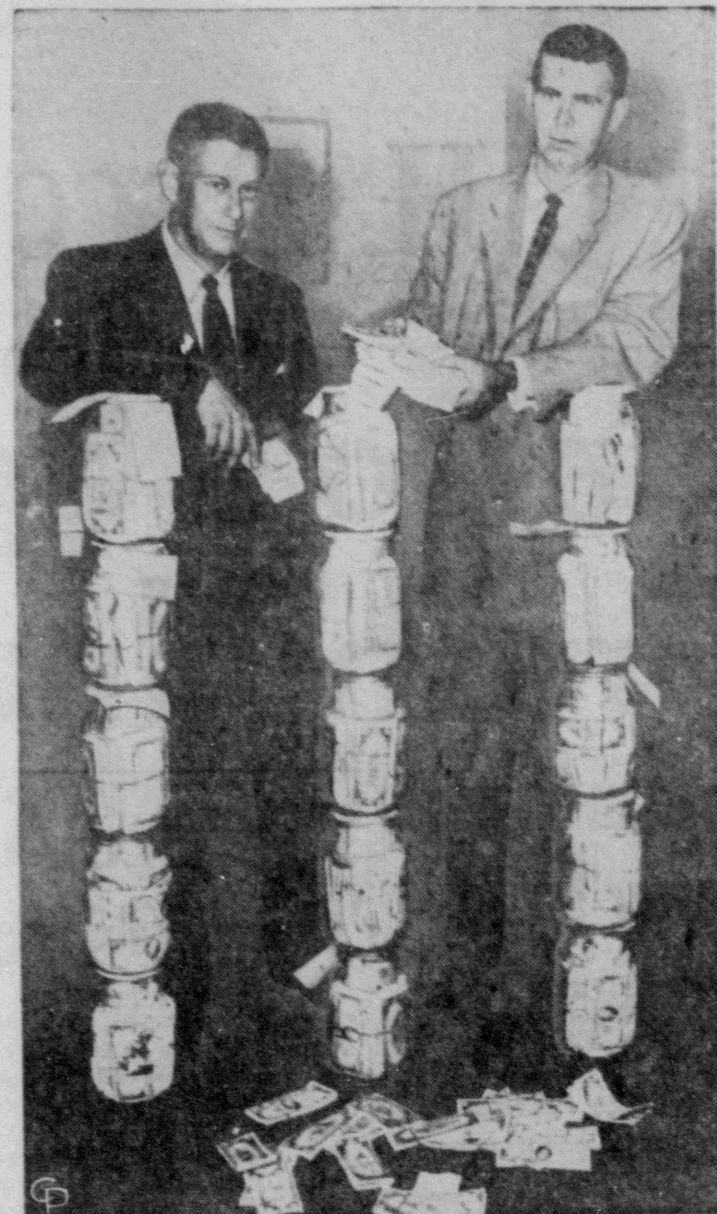

The London Daily Mail reported a move under way for a Western combine of nations to buy or lease the canal from Egypt, with much of the money to come from the World Bank.

The Mail says Egypt could use the money—reportedly somewhere between 200 million and 500 million dollars—to build the Aswan high dam.

Nasser said he nationalized the canal to get the money for the billion-dollar dam on the Upper Nile after the United States and Britain withdrew their offers to help finance the project.

Recover Second Body in Area Where U. S. Plane Shot Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy today announced recovery of the second body of a crewman of the patrol plane which was shot down off the China coast last Thursday.

The first body was found Friday in an area about 90 miles southeast of Shanghai and near the eastern fringe of the islands which flank the South China coast.

A brief message from the 7th Fleet, charged with search operations in the area, said that the body of the second crew member was found by a U. S. destroyer in the general vicinity where bits of wreckage and the first body were previously recovered.

The crewman was not identified.

The Navy Mercator plane had 16 men aboard. Communist China admits having shot down a plane the same day the U. S. craft went down, but says it attacked a Chinese Nationalist aircraft.

President Eisenhower discussed the incident this morning with Secretary of State Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The White House did not announce the results of the discussion.

Dulles said afterwards that investigation of the incident was a complicated, time-consuming process involving the identification of plane fragments and debris and measurements of currents and tides.

State Department officials have taken the position that they need more information before deciding what course of action to take in the affair.

Meanwhile, they were reported considering making public the text of a note from Peiping concerning the incident. The note, disclosed by Dulles Tuesday, was described by some informants as nonbelligerent in tone and even containing a provisional apology.

While the Reds asserted that the aircraft they attacked was Chinese Nationalist they reportedly said also that if it turned out to be an American plane they were sorry about the incident.

Jersey Chief Seen Charmed By Ohio Girl

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Robert B. Meyner, the bachelor governor of New Jersey, has left newsmen with the impression he's definitely interested in the young lady he's currently dating—Helen Stevenson.

The 48-year-old governor enjoyed himself at a press conference Tuesday fielding questions tossed his way about the tall, 28-year-old brunette.

Meyner dated Margaret Truman before her marriage last spring, for example, but always insisted "we're good friends."

He laughed heartily when the subject turned to Miss Stevenson at Tuesday's session and his eyes danced from one questioner to another.

"Are you planning to see her again?" one newsmen asked. "Foolish question," Meyner chuckled.

Miss Stevenson's father is President William Stevenson of Oberlin College in Ohio. Among the things she and Meyner share in common is a liking for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, a distant cousin of hers.

Meyner escorted Miss Stevenson to a summer stock production of the Broadway musical comedy "Plain and Fancy" at Neptune on Monday night.

Hangs Self in Cell

CONNEAUT (AP) — A prisoner hanged himself with his belt Tuesday in his city jail cell. Police said Francis M. Fassnacht, 39, had been jailed for failure to pay a municipal court fine.

The steel posts supporting the lights on Court St. are being reinforced at the base for some distance above and below the surface of the concrete.

Steel plates are being welded to the base of the poles, extending a short distance below the surface of the concrete, which has been chiseled away and also for a foot or so above the surface.

This is being done because it was found that the poles were rusting away above and just below the surface of the concrete.

Waterproof material will be applied to the base of the poles and the concrete replaced.

Watch Children Going to School

Suggestions Made
By Police Chief

During the next few weeks traffic officers, school boy patrols, teachers and parents will be busy teaching the small fry, starting to school for the first time, the ways in which they should walk between home and school.

Chief of Police Vaiden Long states that probably for the month of September all adults will be exceptionally concerned about the welfare of these youngsters who are venturing into the traffic world for the first time, more or less on their own.

Most of them will be walking, but many among those who have gone to school for several years will use the bicycle.

There is quite a difference of opinion as to where the youthful cyclists should travel. Some folks insist that, for youth safety, the bicycle should stay off of the street, but the chief pointed out that Ohio law classifies a bicycle as a vehicle, which is required to observe the basic traffic laws the same as other vehicles. Therefore, the bicycle should be ridden in the street and not on sidewalk.

But, an increasing number of youth are seen riding the bicycle on the wrong side of the street, facing the traffic. This is against the basic traffic law.

BICYCLES should be on the right-hand side of the street as close to the right-hand curb as possible. And the rider should observe all the signs, signals, in the operation of his cycle. Parents should insist that the cyclist use both hands while he is riding. The only permissible exception should be when he uses his left hand to signal his intention to change lanes or turn. No passenger should be carried unless the bicycle is built for two people and all bikes that are ridden at night must have lights.

Practically every motorist realizes the need for extra care in school zones and playgrounds at the time when many children will be abroad. Not so many recognize the need for moderate speed at the intersections and along the streets where the youngsters are walking enroute to and from school.

Wherever there are clusters of youth there will be some scuffling and fooling around. Pushing and shoving can easily result in some youngster popping out into the street. You can't lose much time travelling five to ten miles slower than the permissible limit, yet that slight loss may mean many, many years of life to some youngster, Chief Long said.

Be extra cautious in the residential neighborhoods and remember that there are smaller children who are more or less on their own, he added. Extra adult watchfulness is needed on the part of motorists and the motorists. The chief urged that mothers make it a habit to check frequently when the small child is out of doors at play.

All adults should set a good example for youth; nothing could be more distressing, said the Chief, than to realize that a youngster got into traffic trouble because he behaved the same way you did as a pedestrian.

Bender Wants Lausche To Campaign Like a Democrat

By REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican U.S. Sen. George H. Bender appears determined to make his opponent campaign like a Democrat.

That's the interpretation politicians place on Bender's new blasts at Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who seeks to unseat Bender come Nov. 6.

Bender termed Lausche "a political fence sitter" and again dared the independent-minded governor to a series of debates in advance of the election.

Still smarting under Lausche's refusal to engage "in a shouting contest with you," Bender asserts the governor should tell Ohioans why he is running for senator.

Engrossed in the Ohio State Fair the governor says he will wage his usual type of campaign this fall. That includes the "county fair circuit."

Both candidates apparently are bidding heavily for the so-called independent vote. Politicians say Lausche has been highly successful in that direction and must continue if he wins again in Ohio where more Republicans than Democrats usually vote.

Bender asserted Lausche made "phony statements" by hinting in 1950 that he favored reelection of the late GOP Sen. Robert A. Taft. Actually, Bender said, Lausche campaigned with Taft's opponent, Joseph T. Ferguson, then state auditor. Lausche said recently he voted for Taft.

But what really burns Bender is Lausche's reaffirmed hint that he might vote with Republicans to organize the next Senate if elected. Lausche hinted he might do that to assure a Republican president of a GOP-controlled Senate.

Bender's friends termed the statement an attempt to rob the senator of a prime campaign argument. Republicans, anticipating President Eisenhower's reelection, claim Bender's election might be the deciding vote in regaining control of the Senate from Democrats.

Bender asserts Ohio needs an experienced full time senator like himself instead of one who plays golf frequently. He alluded to Lausche's liking for the game in which he scores in the low 70's.

Ohioans expect Bender to have help in his campaign from Eisenhower, Vice President Richard Nixon, cabinet members and other top drawer members of the party.

Bender said former presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey of New York, an old golfing partner of Lausche, has offered to help.

Although some Democrats criticize Lausche's show of political independence, others offer him their help.

Sen. George Smathers, chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, says he will be glad to answer any Lausche request for aid.

"So far as I am concerned," the Floridian said, "I don't have to worry about how he will vote."

"He's an independent Democrat, but a Democrat nonetheless. I believe when he gets here (in Washington) he'll vote Democratic."

All of which, politicians opine, adds interest to a crucial campaign in Ohio that has attracted national interest.

Lausche has been quoted variously as saying the race was a cinch and as expressing doubts over his prospects.

"A lot of people feel that I will be elected, but I'm not so sure," Lausche said at the recent Chicago Democratic convention. But if I feel that way about it," he added with a laugh, "then my opponent feels even less sure."

Probe Death at Veterans Center

DAYTON (AP)—The body of George Harvey, 60, a resident of the Veterans Administration Center here, was found Tuesday in underbrush behind the center's dining hall.

An autopsy showed that Harvey died of a skull fracture from a severe blow on the head. Montgomery County and federal agents are investigating.

Monday Is To Be Holiday Here

Monday, the annual Labor Day holiday, will be a day of rest and recreation for nearly everybody in Washington, D. C. except the police, sheriff's officers and Highway Patrol officers.

Although no comprehensive survey has been made by either the Chamber of Commerce or its Retail Merchants Committee, Ralph Cook, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, said a spot check, and custom, indicated that virtually every retail establishment and all offices would be closed for the holiday.

The exceptions he noted were some of the neighborhood grocery stores, restaurants, service stations and the drug stores. These, he said, probably would follow their own regular Sunday hours.

No check has been made at the city's industrial plants, but indications are that the holiday will be observed at virtually all of them again this year as in the past.

There is some confusion over whether the stores that observe a Thursday afternoon holiday would close for the half - day during a week in which there is another holiday, and Cook said this decision would be made by the individual store managers and proprietors. Some of the stores, but not all of them, in the city's business district close only on Thursday afternoons during the three summer months of June, July and August and, since Labor Day is the first Monday in September, this raises the question of the two holidays in one week.

Cook said the Retail Merchants Committee probably would take up the question of two holidays in a week (one the Thursday afternoon closing) at its next meeting on Sept. 5.

No Record - Herald will be published Monday. This is in accordance with a long - standing Labor Day policy to observe the full holiday so employees may spend it with their families.

The post office lobby will be open from 6:30 a. m. until 6 p. m. but there is to be no mail delivery, either in the city or on the rural routes. Mail will be distributed to the boxes in the post office and special delivery mail is to be delivered as usual. Outgoing mail is to be dispatched at noon.

Many are expected to take advantage of the holiday to take to the open road — and for this reason, all law enforcement officers of state, county and city are preparing for extra patrol duty. Word has been passed along for them to keep a special watch for speeding and reckless driving on roads and streets that will be crowded with holiday traffic, if this Labor Day follows the pattern of previous Labor Days.

Officers are anticipating two times of heavy traffic — Saturday evening and Monday evening, when motorists leave for holiday trips and then come back home again.

Still smarting under Lausche's refusal to engage "in a shouting contest with you," Bender asserts the governor should tell Ohioans why he is running for senator.

Engrossed in the Ohio State Fair the governor says he will wage his usual type of campaign this fall. That includes the "county fair circuit."

Both candidates apparently are bidding heavily for the so-called independent vote. Politicians say Lausche has been highly successful in that direction and must continue if he wins again in Ohio where more Republicans than Democrats usually vote.

Bender asserted Lausche made "phony statements" by hinting in 1950 that he favored reelection of the late GOP Sen. Robert A. Taft. Actually, Bender said, Lausche campaigned with Taft's opponent, Joseph T. Ferguson, then state auditor. Lausche said recently he voted for Taft.

But what really burns Bender is Lausche's reaffirmed hint that he might vote with Republicans to organize the next Senate if elected. Lausche hinted he might do that to assure a Republican president of a GOP-controlled Senate.

Bender's friends termed the statement an attempt to rob the senator of a prime campaign argument. Republicans, anticipating President Eisenhower's reelection, claim Bender's election might be the deciding vote in regaining control of the Senate from Democrats.

Bender asserts Ohio needs an experienced full time senator like himself instead of one who plays golf frequently. He alluded to Lausche's liking for the game in which he scores in the low 70's.

Ohioans expect Bender to have help in his campaign from Eisenhower, Vice President Richard Nixon, cabinet members and other top drawer members of the party. Bender said former presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey of New York, an old golfing partner of Lausche, has offered to help.

Although some Democrats criticize Lausche's show of political independence, others offer him their help.

Sen. George Smathers, chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, says he will be glad to answer any Lausche request for aid.

"So far as I am concerned," the Floridian said, "I don't have to worry about how he will vote."

Says 'Fast Buck Promoters' Push Weird Jimmy Dean Cult

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The director who made Jimmy Dean's last picture accuses "fast buck promoters" of sparking a weird, morbid cult for the dead actor.

Newsstands lately have been flooded with articles, even entire magazines, devoted to such morbid topics as "Jimmy Dean Speaks From Beyond;" "Why Jimmy Dean Knew He Was Going To Die;" or "Why Jimmy Dean wanted to die."

George Stevens, who directed Dean in the upcoming "Giant," calls all of the stories ridiculous. "Jimmy Dean lived every day for the future. He had no more premonition of death than you or I. These fast buck promoters, out to sell their magazines and souvenirs, won't let the poor fellow die in peace."

Many of the articles are accompanied by photos which Stevens said originally were intended as gag shots. One shows Dean beside an open coffin in a Fairmont, Ind., mortuary. Another is an autographed picture from Vampira, who did a ghoulish television act in introducing horror movies. She was a friend of Dean's and the picture shows her standing beside an open grave beckoning.

"The picture beside the coffin was made when Dean visited a high school chum in his home town. It was a gag picture that any young man might pose for on an impulse," says Stevens.

Stevens was a discoverer of Dean and knew him as well as anyone in Hollywood.

"His interest in speed, which ultimately killed him, was no more unusual than that of thousands of other young men who like to get behind the wheel of fast cars," he said. "He was in an accident. He was killed. It's as simple as that."

"Anyone who subscribes to this phony morbidity cult is doing an injustice to the memory of a great actor. I'm sure Jimmy would want to be judged solely on his talent and nothing else."

and ill-fitting dentures, they can enjoy solid, well-balanced meals. Money is another problem. Retired people with shrunken incomes often feel that the right foods are too expensive. Better knowledge of food values, careful marketing and budgeting will help.

Health For All

EATING FOR LIFE
"It doesn't matter what I eat at my age," says Grandmother pushing the spinach to the side of her plate.

And she was just telling Junior to eat his spinach.

Junior has a perfect right to think she's being unreasonable. She is. Her diet needs are almost the same as his, except that she can manage with fewer calories because she climbs fewer trees.

Older people too often think the rules of health no longer apply to them. They're apt to believe, for instance, that they're too old to catch an infectious disease such as tuberculosis. A glance at TB statistics would tell them another story. The TB case rate and death rate in people over 65 is considerably higher than in people between 15 and 44. And nutrition is one of the important factors in resistance to tuberculosis.

Why do so many older people eat poorly? The most common reason, doctors believe, is habit. Some of them never have eaten enough meat, vegetables, and milk — and they don't want to change. Teeth also play a part. If older people will see their dentists for correction of decayed or missing teeth

Probe Death at Veterans Center

DAYTON (AP)—The body of George Harvey, 60, a resident of the Veterans Administration Center here, was found Tuesday in underbrush behind the center's dining hall.

An autopsy showed that Harvey died of a skull fracture from a severe blow on the head. Montgomery County and federal agents are investigating.

Monday Is To Be Holiday Here

Monday, the annual Labor Day holiday, will be a day of rest and recreation for nearly everybody in Washington, C. H. except the police, sheriff's officers and Highway Patrol officers.

Although no comprehensive survey has been made by either the Chamber of Commerce or its Retail Merchants Committee, Ralph Cook, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, said a spot check, and custom, indicated that virtually every retail establishment and all offices would be closed for the holiday.

The exceptions he noted were some of the neighborhood grocery stores, restaurants, service stations and the drug stores. These, he said, probably would follow their own regular Sunday hours.

No check has been made at the city's industrial plants, but indications are that the holiday will be observed at virtually all of them again this year as in the past.

There is some confusion over whether the stores that observe a Thursday afternoon holiday would close for the half-day during a week in which there is another holiday, and Cook said this decision would be made by the individual store managers and proprietors. Some of the stores, but not all of them, in the city's business district close only on Thursday afternoons during the three summer months of June, July and August and since Labor Day is the first Monday in September, this raises the question of the two holidays in one week.

Cook said the Retail Merchants Committee probably would take up the question of two holidays in a week (one the Thursday afternoon closing) at its next meeting on Sept. 5.

No Record - Herald will be published Monday. This is in accordance with a long-standing Labor Day policy to observe the full holiday so employees may spend it with their families.

The post office lobby will be open from 6:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. but there is to be no mail delivery, either in the city or on the rural routes. Mail will be distributed to the boxes in the post office and special delivery mail is to be delivered as usual. Outgoing mail is to be dispatched at noon.

Many are expected to take advantage of the holiday to take to the open road — and for this reason, all law enforcement officers of state, county and city are preparing for extra patrol duty. Word has been passed along for them to keep a special watch for speeding and reckless driving on roads and streets that will be crowded with holiday traffic, if this Labor Day follows the pattern of previous Labor Days.

Officers are anticipating two times of heavy traffic — Saturday evening and Monday evening, when motorists leave for holiday trips and then come back home again.

Women a Dominant Influence In Our Economy

Those Fayette County observers, and others across the country who watched on TV the activities in the recent Republican national convention saw some rather unusual and unique methods used by the convention leaders in playing up the important part which women are expected to take in this presidential campaign.

"Never underestimate the power of a woman" also has been the slogan used by a woman's magazine of wide circulation to point up in catchy style that the women in our land are a potent factor in our economic life as well as in other phases of human existence.

Taking it for granted that no one actually knows how strong the women of America have become, many writers at various times, have commented upon this subject. Some of these estimates are reported to be extravagant such as that she controls 85 per cent of all consumer buying; seemingly the more conservative estimate, from surveys made, would place this figure at nearer 60 per cent.

What this means can be deduced from one statistic — last year's total consumer expenditures in this country reached $252 billion.

In some fields, obviously enough, the woman purchaser is extremely dominant — food, personal care (including cosmetics), household equipment, clothing. In other fields she is also a very big factor — either as a direct purchaser or as an influence on purchases made by the husband and other members of the family. So an inevitable development has been increasing attention on the part of business to try to find out just what inducements cause a woman to spend her money most freely. Much has been learned — much more, apparently, is still somewhat shrouded in mystery, although efforts by business to unravel that mystery are being intensified.

Efforts to get at the actual facts have resulted in comments that most automobiles are actually purchased by men — but before that purchase is made, a woman has had a great deal to say about it. Hence, the stepped-up advertising emphasis on color and style in cars — as against such prosaic matters as mechanical features.

The food industry has gone especially deeply into the subject of milady's likes and dislikes, as have the soap and cigarette people. Studies indicate that women want to be told they've done a good job. From this stems a basic principle used by some that to sell the housewife anything "do not lecture her on how wonderful your product is, or how it will eliminate her drudgery; tell her — or imply — that using it will not merely make life easier but will surely bring her recognition and approval."

Other merchandisers think women are more emotional and venturesome in their purchasing habits than are men, and gear their sales inducements accordingly. A food chain is cited which has been successfully emphasizing unusual and exotic items — along with innovations in store arrangements and color schemes.

This doesn't mean women are disinterested in questions of function and economy. But, it seems, they like their purchasing to do something for their self-esteem. A leading researcher regards the woman as "an independent, often individualistic, creature, driven by a creative urge that manifests itself even in the imaginative way she uses ready-to-serve foods, considering herself knowledgeable and mature, rejoicing in the fact that she is harder to fool, preferring 'to save happiness rather than dollars,' and disposed to buy the better and more expensive item if she can afford it."

Many a peaceful revolution has taken place in this country in the last 50 years or so. Not the least of them has been in woman's role in influencing our economy. Perhaps the same will become increasingly true in politics.

What You Find in Your Mail!

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Odd facts a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That many highway accidents are probably caused by people who are slowly going blind and don't know it. The National Society For The Prevention Of Blindness estimates that fewer than half of the one million Americans suffering from glaucoma, a vision-destroying ailment, realize they have it.

That South Dakota doesn't require an eye test for driver's license applicants.

That Katzenellenbogen is the longest name in the current Manhattan phone directory. The man's an accountant, and anybody trying to forge his signature runs the risk of writer's cramp.

That the pretty lady whose portrait appears on some $100 Confederate bills was Lucy Halcombe Pickens, an ancestor of singer Jane Pickens.

That a grass cutter shaped like a golf club is now on the market for guys who want to practice their swings while mowing the lawn.

Why don't they build one shaped like an egg beater, too, so wives can join in the fun?

That while most of us spend our lives trying to understand economics, fewer than 5 per cent of U. S. high school graduates ever took a course in the subject.

That Saturday is a more dangerous day than Sunday for motorists. Last year Saturday accidents took 8,320 lives, Sunday 7,410. And will it make you more careful to know that three out of four accidents happen on dry roads in clear weather?

That U. S. miners dug nearly $66 million in gold from the ground in 1955—but the U. S. government kept nearly $22 billion in gold buried in a hole at Fort Knox.

That the first self-service "honor system" restaurant, the Exchange Buffet (the cashier took the customer's word for what he ate), opened here Sept. 4, 1885... but no night club or bar has ever tried the system, so far as we know.

That the first trip across the United States by auto, completed Aug. 31, 1903, took 52 days. Thanks to traffic jams, it seems to take about the same time today to go across mid-town Manhattan.

That over the years Sammy Kaye spent more than $3,000 for the 10,000 batons he has given away on his "so you want to lead a band" contests.

That the average American farmer, who in 1900 raised enough food to supply six other persons, now according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture raises enough to feed 18 persons besides himself... Yeah, but how many of those 18 actually get most of their nourishment from drugstore pills?

That if you think caesarean births originated with Julius Caesar, you're wrong. While he is the most famous person ever delivered by this operation, it was known hundreds of years before Rome's greatest emperor was born. Six of every 100 babies today are caesarean deliveries.

Who Owns Our Industries?

By George Sokolsky

I was reading a circular of an American-Canadian investment fund which is proliferating like rabbits, when I came across this paragraph relating to the primary objective for the fund:

"To operate in such a way that the shareholders will incur only minimum taxes and the fund will incur no United States tax liability and only relatively small tax liability to Canada and other countries."

It has been suggested to me that there is nothing wrong in thinking up a gimmick to save money on taxes. Of course, there is nothing morally or legally wrong with that, except that when the rest of us have to carry a heavy load because we earn wages, we are not excited about those who are able to shift the load from themselves to us.

If a tax is to be socially right, it should be equally collected. If those who possess reservoirs of capital can shift their funds to Canada or Liberia or Panama or wherever and thus avoid paying an equal tax with other citizens, it can only mean that the others have to pay more.

I do not mention the name of this particular fund, first, because I am not advertising it for prospective investors and secondly because there are many such funds and they are all pretty much alike. I have its brochure before me and this paragraph is particularly interesting:

"The fund intends so to conduct its affairs that it will incur no tax liability to the United States, since it does not intend (1) to engage in trade or business in the United States within the meaning of the United States Internal Revenue Code, (2) to have a permanent establishment in the United States within the meaning of the tax treaty between the United States and Canada or (3) to have any income arising from sources within the United States which would be subject to United States taxes."

The government of the United States has very little information on the movement of money in and out of the country. A statement prepared by M. Joseph Meenan, director of the Office of Business Economics of the U. S. Department of Commerce, read before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, contained these paragraphs which are a realistic appraisal of the situation:

"Our present sources of information on the acquisition and sale by foreigners of controlling interests in United States companies are incomplete. Withholding tax records apply only to enterprises paying dividends to foreign residents.

"When purchases or sales are deliberately concealed, we would have no means to discover them. Moreover, even when we know that an enterprise is wholly or partially controlled by foreign interests our questionnaires are not always answered."

Walter Lederer, chief of the Balance of Payments Division of the Department of Commerce, estimated that the minimum foreign investment in American industry is 114 billion dollars.

Chairman Armstrong of the SEC had put the figure at 26 billion. These figures are not divergent; they represent the inclusion of different entities, but no matter what data one studies, the fact emerges that Canada and Switzerland are excellent tax sanctuaries for American money — which can then come back into this country in the form of Canadian, Swiss or other national investments and avoid the payment of taxes.

And, so far as anyone knows, it is done legitimately. In 1949, the value of Swiss owned stock was $22 million dollars, that is, American securities owned by Swiss nationals, usually Swiss banks representing anonymous accounts. By the end of 1954, this was increased to $1,353,000,000. It must be much greater now because the past year has witnessed enormous activities in this direction. As for Canada, the Canadian investment in American securities in 1949 amounted, according to Lederer, to 480 million; in 1954, to 916 million. These figures appear very low in 1956 but give the general trend sufficiently to indicate what it is.

Surely, there can be no objection to the investment of foreign funds in American industry if we know who owns the funds. The principal objection is to anonymous ownership, particularly of defense plants which could be a peril to the country. The Swiss investment is totally anonymous and could even represent foreign governments. The Canadian investment often represents American money operating through Canada to evade American taxes.

All this calls for getting at the facts, which are very difficult to obtain. (Copyright 1955 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Pregnancy No Cause Of Teeth Decaying

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Pregnancy in itself does not cause tooth decay.

The widespread belief among American women that pregnancy is a direct source of dental trouble is something I would like to debunk right now.

Ancient Myth

It is nothing but an age-old myth.

But it is amazing how many times an American Dental Association survey disclosed that 80 percent of the families interviewed associated dental decay with pregnancy.

Cause of Decay

The plain truth is that any increase in decay during pregnancy generally can be attributed to poor mouth hygiene and too frequent consumption of sweets. Dental scientists have conducted tests which repeatedly have established this as factual.

Neither is it true that the unborn child absorbs calcium from the teeth of the mother. Again, studies show that the mother's teeth do not release calcium or any other element for the benefit of her child.

Surprisingly, it is true that expectant mothers on rich diets are more likely to develop calcium deficiencies than those on poorer diets. While nutrients such as the milk products contain calcium, they also are abundant in phosphates.

And phosphates, experiments show, inhibit passage of calcium into the blood stream. If not remedied, resulting calcium deficiency might produce skeletal abnormalities in both the expectant mother and her unborn baby.

Generally, this calcium deficiency is signaled by cramps in the legs.

Important Vitamins

Recently it was revealed that calcium deficiencies may be overcome with a prenatal calcium supplement which is free of phosphate. It's called calcisalin and also contains aluminum hydroxide gel, iron and certain important vitamins.

The excess phosphorus that the mother-to-be gets in her daily diet is neutralized by the gel and her body gets full benefit from the calcium intake.

So, don't blame the baby for any calcium deficiency. He'll have enough troubles of his own after he's born.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R. L.: Is there any way of determining the sex of a baby before it is born?

Answer: In so far as I know, there is no absolutely definite way. However, recently a fairly accurate test has been devised which may turn out to be helpful. This test works by determining the amount of hormones present in the saliva of the pregnant woman.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—When politicians — like former President Truman — promise repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act if the Democrats win this year, it's strictly pie-in-the-sky stuff. Labor leaders know better.

Although top AFL-CIO leaders Tuesday recommended that the big labor organization endorse the Democratic presidential ticket, one thing can be predicted with certainty: No matter which party wins this election — Democrats or Republicans — T-H will not be repealed.

T-H was passed by a Republican-run Congress, but with Democratic help, in 1947. Ever since then — in their party platforms of 1948, 1952 and this year — the Democrats have promised repeal if elected.

And ever since then — in their party platforms of 1948, 1952 and this year — the Republicans have promised changes in T-H. In spite of all the promises by both sides only one change, fairly small, has been made.

The reason is simple enough; not enough members of Congress were willing to vote for repeal on either side. And labor leaders don't expect this election to produce enough congressional changes to bring about repeal, either.

As an example: Recently the AFL-CIO made a survey in the House of Representatives to find out the sentiment on repeal. They found only 183 members — combining Democrats and Republicans — who could be counted on to support repeal.

That was so far short of the majority needed in the 435-member House that no attempt was even made to find out the situation in the Senate.

That the labor leaders have no illusions in the way of big favors if the Democrats win, was expressed by George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

He said the Democrats' labor plank is better than the Republicans' and he agrees the Democratic plank gives the AFL-CIO even "more than we asked for."

But he added: "The Democratic labor plank holds out more promises 'than we'll probably get.'"

Why then did the AFL-CIO Executive Council vote 17-5 to recommend that its 15 million members back the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket? Meany's explanation:

1. Organized labor has more friends among Democrats than Republicans.

2. The labor leaders favoring endorsement argued it would weaken the cause of other Democratic candidates meaning those running for congressional, state and city offices friendly to labor if the AFL-CIO gave no formal support to the top of the ticket.

The idea of the Statue of Liberty was originated with Edouard de Laboulaye, French historian. In 1865, he suggested it as a memorial to the U. S. in recognition of the 100th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Women a Dominant Influence In Our Economy

Those Fayette County observers, and others across the country who watched on TV the activities in the recent Republican national convention saw some rather unusual and unique methods used by the convention leaders in playing up the important part which women are expected to take in this presidential campaign.

"Never underestimate the power of a woman" also has been the slogan used by a woman's magazine of wide circulation to point up in catchy style that the women in our land are a potent factor in our economic life as well as in other phases of human existence.

Taking it for granted that no one actually knows how strong the women of America have become, many writers at various times, have commented upon this subject. Some of these estimates are reported to be extravagant such as that she controls 85 per cent of all consumer buying; seemingly the more conservative estimate, from surveys made, would place this figure at nearer 60 per cent.

What this means can be deduced from one statistic — last year's total consumer expenditures in this country reached $252 billion.

In some fields, obviously enough, the woman purchaser is extremely dominant — food, personal care (including cosmetics), household equipment, clothing. In other fields she is also a very big factor — either as a direct purchaser or as an influence on purchases made by the husband and other members of the family. So an inevitable development has been increasing attention on the part of business to try to find out just what inducements cause a woman to spend her money most freely. Much has been learned — much more, apparently, is still somewhat shrouded in mystery, although efforts by business to unravel that mystery are being intensified.

Efforts to get at the actual facts have resulted in comments that most automobiles are actually purchased by men — but before that purchase is made, a woman has had a great deal to say about it. Hence, the stepped-up advertising emphasis on color and style in cars — as against such prosaic matters as mechanical features.

The food industry has gone especially deeply into the subject of milady's likes and dislikes, as have the soap and cigarette people. Studies indicate that women want to be told they've done a good job. From this stems a basic principle used by some that to sell the housewife anything "do not lecture her on how wonderful your product is, or how it will eliminate her drudgery; tell her — or imply — that using it will not merely make life easier but will surely bring her recognition and approval."

Other merchandisers think women are more emotional and venturesome in their purchasing habits than are men, and gear their sales inducements accordingly. A food chain is cited which has been successfully emphasizing unusual and exotic items — along with innovations in store arrangements and color schemes.

This doesn't mean women are disinterested in questions of function and economy. But, it seems, they like their purchasing to do something for their self-esteem. A leading researcher regards the woman as "an independent, often individualistic, creature, driven by a creative urge that manifests itself even in the imaginative way she uses ready-to-serve foods, considering herself knowledgeable and mature, rejoicing in the fact that she is harder to fool, preferring 'to save happiness rather than dollars,' and disposed to buy the better and more expensive item if she can afford it."

Many a peaceful revolution has taken place in this country in the last 50 years or so. Not the least of them has been in woman's role in influencing our economy. Perhaps the same will become increasingly true in politics.

NEW YORK (AP)—Odd facts a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Who Owns Our Industries?

I was reading a circular of an American-Canadian investment fund which are proliferating like rabbits, when I came across this paragraph relating to the primary objective for the fund:

"To operate in such a way that the shareholders will incur only minimum taxes and the fund will incur no United States tax liability and only relatively small tax liability to Canada and other countries."

It has been suggested to me that there is nothing wrong in thinking up a gimmick to save money on taxes. Of course, there is nothing morally or legally wrong with that, except that when the rest of us have to carry a heavy load because we earn wages, we are not excited about those who are able to shift the load from themselves to us.

If a tax is to be socially right, it should be equally collected. If those who possess reservoirs of capital can shift their funds to Canada or Liberia or Panama or wherever and thus avoid paying an equal tax with other citizens, it can only mean that the others have to pay more.

I do not mention the name of this particular fund, first, because I am not advertising it for prospective investors and secondly because there are many such funds and they are all pretty much alike. I have its brochure before me and this paragraph is particularly interesting:

"The fund intends so to conduct its affairs that it will incur no tax liability to the United States, since it does not intend (1) to engage in trade or business in the United States within the meaning of the United States Internal Revenue Code, (2) to have a permanent establishment in the United States within the meaning of the tax treaty between the United States and Canada or (3) to have any income arising from sources within the United States which would be subject to United States taxes."

The government of the United States has very little information on the movement of money in and out of the country. A statement prepared by M. Joseph Meehan, director of the Office of Business Economics of the U. S. Department of Commerce, read before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, contained these paragraphs which are a realistic appraisal of the situation:

"Our present sources of information on the acquisition and sale by foreigners of controlling interests in United States companies are incomplete. Withholding tax records apply only to enterprises paying dividends to foreign residents.

"When purchases or sales are deliberately concealed, we would have no means to discover them. Moreover, even when we know that an enterprise is wholly or partially controlled by foreign interests our questionnaires are not always answered."

Walter Lederer, chief of the Balance of Payments Division of the Department of Commerce, estimated that the minimum foreign investment in American industry is 114 billion dollars.

By George Sokolsky

Chairman Armstrong of the SEC had put the figure at 26 billion. These figures are not divergent; they represent the inclusion of different entities, but no matter what data one studies, the fact emerges that Canada and Switzerland are excellent tax sanctuaries for American money which can then come back into this country in the form of Canadian, Swiss or other national investments and avoid the payment of taxes.

And, so far as anyone knows, it is done legitimately. In 1949, the value of Swiss owned stock was $22 million dollars, that is, American securities owned by Swiss nationals, usually Swiss banks representing anonymous accounts. By the end of 1954, this was increased to $1,353,000,000. It must be much greater now because the past year has witnessed enormous activities in this direction. As for Canada, the Canadian investment in American securities in 1949 amounted, according to Lederer, to 480 million; in 1954, to 910 million. These figures appear very low in 1956 but give the general trend sufficiently to indicate what it is.

Surely, there can be no objection to the investment of foreign funds in American industry if we know who owns the funds. The principal objection is to anonymous ownership, particularly of defense plants which could be a peril to the country. The Swiss investment is totally anonymous and could even represent foreign governments. The Canadian investment often represents American money operating through Canada to evade American taxes.

All this calls for getting at the facts, which are very difficult to obtain. (Copyright 1955 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Pregnancy No Cause Of Teeth Decaying

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Pregnancy in itself does not cause tooth decay.

Ancient Myth
It is nothing but an age-old myth.

But it is amazing how many of them. An American Dental Association survey disclosed that 80 percent of the families interviewed associated dental decay with pregnancy.

Cause of Decay

The plain truth is that any increase in decay during pregnancy generally can be attributed to poor mouth hygiene and too frequent consumption of sweets. Dental scientists have conducted tests which repeatedly have established this as factual.

Neither is it true that the unborn child absorbs calcium from the teeth of the mother. Again, studies show that the mother's teeth do not release calcium or any other element for the benefit of her child.

Surprisingly, it is true that expectant mothers on rich diets are more likely to develop calcium deficiencies than those on poorer diets. While nutrients such as the milk products contain calcium, they also are abundant in phosphates.

And phosphates, experiments show, inhibit passage of calcium into the blood stream. If not remedied, resulting calcium deficiency might produce skeletal abnormalities in both the expectant mother and her unborn baby.

Generally, this calcium deficiency is signaled by cramps in the legs.

Important Vitamins

Recently it was revealed that calcium deficiencies may be overcome with a prenatal calcium supplement which is free of phosphate. It's called calcisalin and also contains aluminum hydroxide gel, iron and certain important vitamins.

The excess phosphorus that the mother-to-be gets in her daily diet is neutralized by the gel and her body gets full benefit from the calcium intake.

So, don't blame the baby for any calcium deficiency. He'll have enough troubles of his own after he's born.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R. L.: Is there any way of determining the sex of a baby before it is born?

Answer: In so far as I know, there is no absolutely definite way. However, recently a fairly accurate test has been devised which may turn out to be helpful. This test works by determining the amount of hormones present in the saliva of the pregnant woman.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—When politicians — like former President Truman — promise repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act if the Democrats win this year, it's strictly pie-in-the-sky stuff. Labor leaders know better.

Although top AFL-CIO leaders Tuesday recommended that the big labor organization endorse the Democratic presidential ticket, one thing can be predicted with certainty: No matter which party wins this election — Democrats or Republicans — T-H will not be repealed.

T-H was passed by a Republican-run Congress, but with Democratic help, in 1947. Ever since then — in their party platforms of 1948, 1952 and this year — the Democrats have promised repeal if elected.

And ever since then — in their party platforms of 1948, 1952 and this year — the Republicans have promised changes in T-H. In spite of all the promises by both sides only one change, fairly small, has been made.

The reason is simple enough: not enough members of Congress were willing to vote for repeal on either side. And labor leaders don't expect this election to produce enough congressional changes to bring about repeal, either.

As an example: Recently the AFL-CIO made a survey in the House of Representatives to find out the sentiment on repeal. They found only 183 members — combining Democrats and Republicans — who could be counted on to support repeal.

That was so far short of the majority needed in the 435-member House that no attempt was even made to find out the situation in the Senate.

That the labor leaders have no illusions in the way of big favors if the Democrats win, was expressed by George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

He said the Democrats' labor plank is better than the Republi-

But he added: "The Democratic labor plank holds out more promises 'than we'll probably get.'"

Why then did the AFL-CIO Executive Council vote 17-5 to recommend that its 15 million members back the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket? Meany's explanation:

1. Organized labor has more friends among Democrats than Republicans.

2. The labor leaders favoring endorsement argued it would weaken the cause of other Democratic candidates meaning those running for congressional, state and city offices friendly to labor if the AFL-CIO gave no formal support to the top of the ticket.

The idea of the Statue of Liberty was originated with Edouard de Laboulaye, French historian. In 1865, he suggested it as a memorial to the U. S. in recognition of the 100th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Ike Can Capture GOP Congress Leaders Believe

President Repeatedly Throws Spotlight
On Party Control

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Reporter
Republicans are hoping that with President Eisenhower once again at the head of their ticket, they will be able to recapture control of Congress in the November elections.

Eisenhower took time at the Republican convention in San Francisco last week to try to transfer some of his popularity to GOP candidates for the Senate and the House, receiving them in his hotel suite and posing with them for pictures.

And, at an extraordinary news conference he held during the convention, he said he believed the country is best served when both the White House and the Congress are controlled by the same political party.

"Then you can fix responsibility," he said.

In the 1952 elections the Republicans swept into power in the Senate and the House behind Eisenhower's smashing victory over Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee. But two years later, when Eisenhower was not on the ticket, the Democrats returned to control in Congress.

In the Senate the Democrats have only a squeaky margin. The lineup is Democrats, 49; Republicans, 47. In the House the Democrats outnumber the Republicans 231 to 201. There are three vacancies.

Control of the House usually rests in some 65 marginal seats that swing back and forth with election tides.

But the situation in the Senate is different, because only one-third of its 96 members ordinarily come up for election every two years and many of these come from states that are safely Democratic or Republican.

In the Senate seats at stake in this year's election the Democrats have a built-in advantage in two respects.

First, of the 32 senators who come up for re-election, 17 are Republicans and 15 are Democrats. Thus the Democrats have less to lose.

Secondly, of the 15 Democratic seats at stake, seven are in the Democratic South, and a couple others are in border states where Republican chances usually are faint at best.

In contrast, only four of the 17 Republican seats at stake are in states where Democrats cannot entertain some hope of victory.

This is not the whole story, however, because recent events have helped to perk up Republican prospects. For one thing, four more Senate seats—making a total of 36—will be up for election as a result of deaths and resignations.

The death of the late Sen.
Barkley throws open two seats in Kentucky, instead of just one. The death of the late Sen. Kilgore has created a vacancy in West Virginia.

In addition, Sen. Thurmond of South Carolina resigned his seat and Sen. Daniel of Texas is expected to resign if he is elected governor of his state.

Other events that the Republicans hope to turn to their profit are the decision of Sen. Lehman (D-NY) not to seek re-election and the withdrawal of former Sen. Tydings (d-Md) from a comeback race.

Nixon Retreats To Write Speeches

WASHINGTON — Vice President Nixon flies today to New Jersey to rest and write some of the speeches he will make during "an extensive and vigorous" campaign tour next month.

L. Richard Guylay, public relations director for the Republican National Committee, said tentative plans call for a "backbreaking schedule" of aerial visits, with speeches averaging more than one a day.

Although details were not announced immediately, Guylay said the first campaign swing will last 10 days or two weeks, starting about mid-September.

Rose Ave., which he built with some friends years ago.

His creditors, several shoe companies to whom he owes between $3,000 and $4,000, were going to sell his house to pay the debts.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey, in anticipation of the sale, had moved to a small bungalow at 1158 Campbell St.

However, at the last minute Godfrey heard that a 30-day delay had been obtained by an attorney who wouldn't give his name. He might be able to move back after all.

His friends here in his town are doing something about it, too. A citizens committee has been formed.
People he knew as children are coming to his aid. Some of them he shod more than once and then looked the other way when money was mentioned.

MRS. FLORENCE Park, 317 S.
Elm St., whose home is headquarters for the fund-raising campaign, says letters with contributions have come from many places and that she is amazed by the number of people who recall some kind act to Godfrey's.

Last winter he gave shoes and overshoes to the six children of an injured man near here, she recalled and added "he was evidently the softest touch in town for any charity, from soda-hungry kids to the cancer fund." He shelled out with no thought for himself, she said.

Mrs. Leonard Barr, of Springfield, was one of many ex-Washington C. H. people who knew Godfrey and came back or sent a contribution. Mrs. Barr recalled how Godfrey had outfitted whole classrooms full of children at cut rate prices, when her sister-in-law was teaching in a Washington C. H. school.

Now, as John Godfrey sits on the front porch of his empty home, and returns to the bungalow at night, 200 people are working to raise $5,000 to save his property.

Contributions may be mailed to Mrs. Parks or to the First National Bank where an account has been set up for the John Godfrey Fund.

Soon a door-to-door canvass will be in full swing. Stores all over town will be displaying cans painted: John Godfrey Fund.

Mrs. Park and the committee are very hopeful.

The movement to help John Godfrey only got started Sunday, but Mrs. Park said $60 to $70 had been contributed by evening. Now that word of the campaign is getting around, she finds it difficult to keep a running dollars and cents record of its progress.

Ike Can Capture GOP Congress Leaders Believe

President Repeatedly Throws Spotlight On Party Control

By JOHN CHADWICK Associated Press Reporter
 Republicans are hoping that with President Eisenhower once again at the head of their ticket, they will be able to recapture control of Congress in the November elections.

Eisenhower took time at the Republican convention in San Francisco last week to try to transfer some of his popularity to GOP candidates for the Senate and the House, receiving them in his hotel suite and posing with them for pictures.

And, at an extraordinary news conference he held during the convention, he said he believed the country is best served when both the White House and the Congress are controlled by the same political party.

"Then you can fix responsibility," he said.

In the 1952 elections the Republicans swept into power in the Senate and the House behind Eisenhower's smashing victory over Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee. But two years later, when Eisenhower was not on the ticket, the Democrats returned to control in Congress.

In the Senate the Democrats have only a squeaky margin. The lineup is Democrats, 49; Republicans, 47. In the House the Democrats outnumber the Republicans 231 to 201. There are three vacancies.

Control of the House usually rests in some 65 marginal seats that swing back and forth with election tides.

But the situation in the Senate is different, because only one-third of its 96 members ordinarily come up for election every two years and many of these come from states that are safely Democratic or Republican.

In the Senate seats at stake in this year's election the Democrats have a built-in advantage in two respects.

First, of the 32 senators who come up for re-election, 17 are Republicans and 15 are Democrats. Thus the Democrats have less to lose.

Secondly, of the 15 Democratic seats at stake, seven are in the Democratic South, and a couple others are in border states where Republican chances usually are faint at best.

In contrast, only four of the 17 Republican seats at stake are in states where Democrats cannot entertain some hope of victory.

This is not the whole story, however, because recent events have helped to perk up Republican prospects. For one thing, four more Senate seats—making a total of 36—will be up for election as a result of deaths and resignations.

The death of the late Sen. Barkley throws open two seats in Kentucky, instead of just one. The death of the late Sen. Kilgore has created a vacancy in West Virginia.

In addition, Sen. Thurmond of South Carolina resigned his seat and Sen. Daniel of Texas is expected to resign if he is elected governor of his state.

Other events that the Republicans hope to turn to their profit are the decision of Sen. Lehman (D-NY) not to seek re-election and the withdrawal of former Sen. Tydings (d-Md) from a comeback race.

Truck Leaks Acid; Boy Cyclist Burned

ST. LOUIS — James Badger, 13, sprayed by sulphuric acid which had leaked from a truck, was burned critically as he rode a bicycle in suburban Lemay.

A passing tank truck splashed the acid on him. He lost control of the bicycle and fell to the street. His shirt and trousers fell away. A quick thinking witness sprayed him with a hose he was using to water his lawn.

Badger was burned on his chest, arms, face and legs.

The truck driver said a valve apparently jarred open as he crossed some railroad tracks. About 4,000 gallons of acid escaped.

Friends Now Coming to Aid of Man Who Helped Them in Time of Need

The Golden Rule is proving itself in Washington C. H. as the John Godfrey Fund begins to take form.

John Godfrey, an 86-year-old shoemaker, has been known for his generosity since he came to Washington C. H. 60 years ago.

WCH High School To Get Schedules At Special Meeting

City high school students will not be instructed by mail about the first school day's activities as has been done in the past.

Instead, said John Trace, Washington C. H. High School principal, all students from the eighth grade up will report directly to the auditorium at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday (the opening of school), where they will receive home room assignments. Schedules will be handed out in home room.

The seventh graders will report directly to their home rooms at the same time. They were assigned home rooms and given other instructions at an orientation session Wednesday (today) morning.

Nixon Retreats To Write Speeches

WASHINGTON — Vice President Nixon flies today to New Jersey to rest and write some of the speeches he will make during "an extensive and vigorous" campaign tour next month.

L. Richard Guylay, public relations director for the Republican National Committee, said tentative plans call for a "backbreaking schedule" of aerial visits, with speeches averaging more than one a day.

Although details were not announced immediately, Guylay said the first campaign swing will last 10 days or two weeks, starting about mid-September.

Rose Ave., which he built with some friends years ago.

His creditors, several shoe companies to whom he owes between $3,000 and $4,000, were going to sell his house to pay the debts.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey, in anticipation of the sale, had moved to a small bungalow at 1158 Campbell St.

However, at the last minute Godfrey heard that a 30-day delay had been obtained by an attorney who wouldn't give his name. He might be able to move back after all.

His friends here in his town are doing something about it, too. A citizens committee has been formed. People he knew as children are coming to his aid. Some of them he shod more than once and then looked the other way when money was mentioned.

MRS. FLORENCE Park, 317 S. Elm St., whose home is headquarters for the fund-raising campaign, says letters with contributions have come from many places and that she is amazed by the number of people who recall some kind act to Godfrey's.

Last winter he gave shoes and overshoes to the six children of an injured man near here, she recalled and added "he was evidently the softest touch in town for any charity, from soda-hungry kids to the cancer fund." He shelled out with no thought for himself, she said.

Mrs. Leonard Barr, of Springfield, was one of many ex-Washington C. H. people who knew Godfrey and came back or sent a contribution. Mrs. Barr recalled how Godfrey had outfitted whole classrooms full of children at cut rate prices, when her sister-in-law was teaching in a Washington C. H. school.

Now, as John Godfrey sits on the front porch of his empty home, and returns to the bungalow at night, 200 people are working to raise $5,000 to save his property.

Contributions may be mailed to Mrs. Parks or to the First National Bank where an account has been set up for the John Godfrey Fund. Soon a door-to-door canvass will be in full swing. Stores all over town will be displaying cans painted: John Godfrey Fund.

Mrs. Park and the committee are very hopeful.

The movement to help John Godfrey only got started Sunday, but Mrs. Park said $60 to $70 had been contributed by evening. Now that word of the campaign is getting around, she finds it difficult to keep a running dollars and cents record of its progress.

Legion Endorses

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Howard C. Kingdom of Conneaut, O., was endorsed by that state's convention for the post of national commander of the American Legion as the veteran's organization opened its three day convention here Tuesday.

The reason cut flowers wilt in a heated room is that they lose water faster than they can absorb it through the cut stems.

Lester C. Overman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Overman, 313 E. Fifth St., has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Md., and is to report to the USS Shangri-la for duty after a 14-day leave with his parents. A former Washington C. H. High School student and a member of St. Colman's Catholic Church, he enlisted for four years.

Club Members Hold Meeting At Shaw Home

Mrs. Percy Shaw was hostess for the regular meeting of the mysterious 15 Club at her home with thirteen members present.

The president, Mrs. Thomas Stultz, conducted the business session which opened with prayer.

It was reported that a comfort had been given to a needy family, and it was decided to present scales for weight, in the Children's Ward at Memorial Hospital.

A contribution was also made to the John Godfrey Fund and it was decided to send a gift to Mrs. John Cherry, who is a shut-in.

Plans were also made to meet at the home of Mrs. Stultz Sept. 2 for a covered dish dinner and work on another comfort for a needy family.

Mrs. Reif Is Hostess To Class Members

Mrs. Naomi Reif entertained twelve members of the Willing To Help Class of McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church at a picnic supper, Tuesday evening. Each member contributed to the supper served buffet from the kitchen table and taken to the spacious yard where small tables were set.

Following the delightful supper hour, the members adjourned to the living room, which was beautifully decorated with summer flowers, for the regular meeting.

Mrs. Reif, the president, opened the meeting with a reading "Friends," and Mrs. Ray Wieland led the devotional period, using Proverbs for Scripture with Mrs. Martin O'Call giving a meditation reading.

During the business session, reports of the various committees were given. Each member contributed an "experience dollar" to the treasury, with an explanation of the earning. A rummage sale was planned for September 15 in the church basement.

The greeting card committee displayed a beautiful array of Christmas card samples, which is to be a future project. The meeting was adjourned with the usual benediction.

During the social hour a gaily contested game was promoted by the hostess and punch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Marshall Bailey will be hostess for the September meeting.

Patrol Seeks Curb On Holiday Deaths

COLUMBUS (AP)—The state highway patrol will be out in "full force" to try curbing Labor Day weekend traffic deaths.

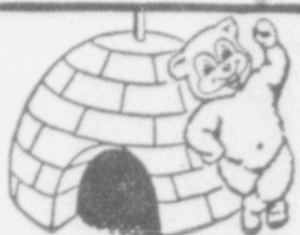

Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the patrol, said Tuesday auxiliary highway patrolmen will help man posts throughout the state to free regular patrolmen for duty on the highways.

Mingle said the patrol also will have at least one plane aloft to watch traffic.

Says Seaway Hampered by Sectionalism

CHICAGO (AP)—The head of an organization promoting St. Lawrence seaway commerce said today that "a multiplicity" of groups are hampering Great Lakes port development.

Dr. N. R. Danielian of Detroit, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Assn., in testimony prepared for a U. S. Senate subcommittee, said "Sectionalism has come to bedevil the Great Lakes area, setting one community against the other."

Dr. Danielian is one of eight organization representatives invited to testify at a two-day hearing by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's subcommittee on the Great Lakes, headed by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

The subcommittee is gathering views on proposed legislation which would give Congressional consent for a compact among the eight states and two Canadian provinces bordering the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River to deal with matters of common concern.

Dr. Danielian told the subcommittee that his association headed up coordinated efforts to smooth the way for actual construction of the seaway and deepening of channels connecting the Great Lakes.

"Since the beginning of the work on the St. Lawrence project," Danielian said, "there has been evidence a centrifugal force as a result of which there has occurred a multiplication of organizations professing interest in the same things, but going in many directions, and duplicating effort."

He said "This is true in the federal establishments as well as among states, municipalities and industrial interests around the Great Lakes area."

Mrs. Reif Is Hostess To Class Members

Mrs. Naomi Reif entertained twelve members of the Willing To Help Class of McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church at a picnic supper, Tuesday evening. Each member contributed to the supper served buffet from the kitchen table and taken to the spacious yard where small tables were set.

Following the delightful supper hour, the members adjourned to the living room, which was beautifully decorated with summer flowers, for the regular meeting.

Mrs. Reif, the president, opened the meeting with a reading "Friends," and Mrs. Ray Wieland led the devotional period, using Proverbs for Scripture with Mrs. Martin O'Call giving a meditation reading.

During the business session, reports of the various committees were given. Each member contributed an "experience dollar" to the treasury, with an explanation of the earning. A rummage sale was planned for September 15 in the church basement.

The greeting card committee displayed a beautiful array of Christmas card samples, which is to be a future project. The meeting was adjourned with the usual benediction.

During the social hour a gaily contested game was promoted by the hostess and punch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Marshall Bailey will be hostess for the September meeting.

Patrol Seeks Curb On Holiday Deaths

COLUMBUS (AP)—The state highway patrol will be out in "full force" to try curbing Labor Day weekend traffic deaths.

Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the patrol, said Tuesday auxiliary highway patrolmen will help man posts throughout the state to free regular patrolmen for duty on the highways.

Mingle said the patrol also will have at least one plane aloft to watch traffic.

Says Seaway Hampered by Sectionalism

CHICAGO (AP)—The head of an organization promoting St. Lawrence seaway commerce said today that "a multiplicity" of groups are hampering Great Lakes port development.

Dr. N. R. Danielian of Detroit, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Assn., in testimony prepared for a U. S. Senate subcommittee, said "Sectionalism has come to bedevil the Great Lakes area, setting one community against the other."

Dr. Danielian is one of eight organization representatives invited to testify at a two-day hearing by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's subcommittee on the Great Lakes, headed by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

The subcommittee is gathering views on proposed legislation which would give Congressional consent for a compact among the eight states and two Canadian provinces bordering the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River to deal with matters of common concern.

Dr. Danielian told the subcommittee that his association headed up coordinated efforts to smooth the way for actual construction of the seaway and deepening of channels connecting the Great Lakes.

"Since the beginning of the work on the St. Lawrence project," Danielian said, "there has been evidence a centrifugal force as a result of which there has occurred a multiplication of organizations professing interest in the same things, but going in many directions, and duplicating effort."

Fayette County Junior Exhibitors Cop State Fair Livestock Awards

Jacqueline Lee Hoppes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoppes of near Good Hope, poses proudly with her champion 4-H Shorthorn female at the Ohio State Fair as she is presented the Kroger trophy by John Wagner of the company's Columbus branch.

Pat Scott, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott of the CCC Highway, won the 4-H and FFA championship competition at the Ohio State Fair. She is shown here with her prize winning Hereford as she is presented the Kroger trophy by John Wagner of the company's Columbus branch.

Placing in the Open Class Beef Show were the following Fayette youngsters:

Pat Scott, fifth with h. Hereford heifer;

IN 4-H Junior Fair competition, Rosalyn Marting had the champion Hereford steer which also was the reserve grand champion over all breeds. This calf will be sold at auction on the Fairgrounds Wednesday evening.

In the swine department, Alan Wilt received two "A" grades on his Chester White breeding gilts. He also showed the champion Chester White gilt of the 4-H Junior Fair.

Jimmy and Dick Klever each received "B" grades on their Holstein cows.

Job Plea Rejected, He Turns Bandit

CINCINNATI (AP)—A man who said he was looking for work turned into a holdup man Tuesday after his plea for a job was turned down in a restaurant in suburban Plainville.

Police said David Poole, 20, of Branch Hill, charged with robbery, surrendered to authorities in Seymour, Ind.

Investigators said a waitress, Miss Patricia Clem, 16, told them that after asking about a job, Poole choked her into unconsciousness and took $10 to $20 from the cash register.

State Mediation of Telephone Dispute Called For by Solon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A state representative wants the Industrial Commission to mediate the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. strike that disrupted service in several southeastern counties.

Rep. James P. Kilbane (D-Cuyahoga) said he made the request at the instance of Mayor V. R. Rife of New Boston, a suburb of Portsmouth that lost service because of the 44-day-old strike marked by violence.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche recently called on the Communication Workers of America and the company to settle their differences without disrupting telephone service.

Kilbane is a member of a legislative study committee that began looking into Ohio laws on workmen's compensation, arbitration and mediation, and minimum wages. The committee, a branch of the fact-finding Legislative Service Commission, expects to make recommendations for the next session of the General Assembly.

Kilbane said he felt the State Department of Industrial Relations should look into the telephone strike but recalled that the last Legislature refused to transfer mediation authority to that branch.

Director Margaret A. Mahoney of the Industrial Relations Department said state permits the Industrial Commission to promote arbitration.

"It should be in the Industrial Relations Department," she told the committee. "The law is doing no good on the books at the present time. It hasn't been used and it won't be. You should either repeal the law or bring it up to date."

The committee adopted a motion by Rep. Paul B. Siple (D-Lawrence) calling for a check of states having labor relations departments with a view to such an addition in Ohio.

Also adopted were motions by Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr. (R-Montgomery) to consider whether Ohio should set up intrastate collective bargaining machinery and by Kilbane for a study of minimum wage laws to correct weaknesses.

Administrator Joseph Scanlon of the new Workmen's Compensation

Bureau said first payments to injured workmen now are made within 20 days and that the time soon may be cut further. He attributed reduction in the time lag on payments of uncontested claims largely to the new law creating the bureau last October.

An aide said the bureau would cooperate with any actuary the service commission hires for a study of workmen's compensation rates and classifications.

The last Legislature authorized the commission to employ the actuary but Charles W. Ingler, research supervisor, said restrictions made it difficult to obtain anyone with proper qualifications.

Rep. John Lehmann (R-Stark) reported that a claim for workmen's compensation filed Sept. 30, 1953, had not been investigated and asked Scanlon why. Scanlon took the case number and said he would look into it. The case was not identified.

Union Leaders Vote To Cast Lot With Dem Campaigners

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders, having decided to cast their lot with the Democrats in the coming election, turned today to planning how they can help defeat President Eisenhower.

The powerful AFL-CIO executive council wound up a long, closed door argument by voting to recommend formal support for the Democratic ticket of Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee against Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

But the council, reportedly against the advice of AFL-CIO President George Meany, voted 14-8 to make an endorsement and then cast that endorsement by a 17-5 count to the Democrats.

The decision was steered by a solid bloc of leaders of former CIO unions sparked by former CIO Chief Walter Reuther. He had been instrumental at the Democratic convention in getting Stevenson nominated.

REUTHER'S CLIQUE persuaded a sprinkling of former AFL union locals to go along, while eight leaders of former AFL unions opposed any endorsement.

Meany and Secretary-Treasurer William Schnitzler abstained from voting. Four other members of the council were absent.

The AFL-CIO leaders today called a meeting of their political operating arm, the Committee on Political Education, to discuss plans for marshaling votes for the Democratic Stevenson-Kefauver combination and for labor-endorsed candidates for Congress and key state offices.

No formal endorsements for the congressional and state races were to be announced, but the union leaders planned to go over the records of rival candidates and lay the basis for picking and choosing among contenders in major contests.

The 25-man AFL-CIO Council actually voted only to recommend a Stevenson-Kefauver endorsement to a meeting of heads of all 140 AFL-CIO unions in Chicago Sept. 12.

But Meany conceded this will only be a formality and said he

Carolina Traveling Legislator Dies

CRAMERTON, N.C. (AP)—George Holden Tinkham, a colorful Boston blueblood who mixed travels to faraway places with 28 years in the U.S. House of Representatives, is dead at 86.

IN 4-H Junior Fair competition, Rosalyr Marting had the champion Hereford steer which also was the reserve grand champion over all breeds. This calf will be sold at auction on the Fairgrounds Wednesday evening.

Jimmy and Dick Klever each received "B" grades on their Holstein cows.

Job Plea Rejected, He Turns Bandit

CINCINNATI (AP)—A man who said he was looking for work turned into a holdup man Tuesday after his plea for a job was turned down in a restaurant in suburban Plainville.

Police said David Poole, 20, of Branch Hill, charged with robbery, surrendered to authorities in Seymour, Ind.

Investigators said a waitress, Miss Patricia Clem, 16, told them that after asking about a job, Poole choked her into unconsciousness and took $10 to $20 from the cash register.

State Mediation of Telephone Dispute Called For by Solon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A state representative wants the Industrial Commission to mediate the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. strike that disrupted service in several southeastern counties.

Rep. James P. Kilbane (D-Cuyahoga) said he made the request at the insistence of Mayor V. R. Rife of New Boston, a suburb of Portsmouth that lost service because of the 44-day-old strike marked by violence.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche recently called on the Communication Workers of America and the company to settle their differences without disrupting telephone service.

Kilbane is a member of a legislative study committee that began looking into Ohio laws on workmen's compensation, arbitration and mediation, and minimum wages. The committee, a branch of the fact-finding Legislative Service Commission, expects to make recommendations for the next session of the General Assembly.

Kilbane said he felt the State Department of Industrial Relations should look into the telephone strike but recalled that the last Legislature refused to transfer mediation authority to that branch.

Director Margaret A. Mahoney of the Industrial Relations Department said statute permits the Industrial Commission to promote arbitration.

"It should be in the Industrial Relations Department," she told the committee. "The law is doing no good on the books at the present time. It hasn't been used and it won't be. You should either repeal the law or bring it up to date."

The committee adopted a motion by Rep. Paul B. Siple (D-Laurens) calling for a check of states having labor relations departments with a view to such an addition in Ohio.

Also adopted were motions by Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr. (R-Montgomery) to consider whether Ohio should set up intrastate collective bargaining machinery and by Kilbane for a study of minimum wage laws to correct weaknesses.

Administrator Joseph Scanlon of the new Workmen's Compensation

Bureau said first payments to injured workmen now are made within 20 days and that the time soon may be cut further. He attributed reduction in the time lag on payments of uncontested claims largely to the new law creating the bureau last October.

An aide said the bureau would cooperate with any actuary the service commission hires for a study of workmen's compensation rates and classifications.

The last Legislature authorized the commission to employ the actuary but Charles W. Ingler, research supervisor, said restrictions made it difficult to obtain anyone with proper qualifications.

Rep. John Lehmann (R-Starke) reported that a claim for workmen's compensation filed Sept. 30, 1953, had not been investigated and asked Scanlon why. Scanlon took the case number and said he would look into it. The case was not identified.

Union Leaders Vote To Cast Lot With Dem Campaigners

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders, having decided to cast their lot with the Democrats in the coming election, turned today to planning how they can help defeat President Eisenhower.

The powerful AFL-CIO executive council wound up a long, closed door argument by voting to recommend formal support for the Democratic ticket of Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee against Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

Carolina Traveling Legislator Dies

CRAMERTON, N.C. (AP)—George Holden Tinkham, a colorful Boston blueblood who mixed travels to faraway places with 28 years in the U.S. House of Representatives, is dead at 86.

Tinkham, whose chest-length beard, his jaunts to places not listed in the tourist guides and his violent opposition to prohibition made him a figure in Congress, died Tuesday in his sleep at the home of a sister here. He had not been ill.

A Mayflower descendant, Tinkham, a Republican, served the 10th Massachusetts Congressional District from 1915 to 1943 when he retired at 72.

Some council members felt their 15 million member labor organization would be sticking its neck out and cutting itself off from any chance for favors from the Republican party.

But the council, reportedly against the advice of AFL-CIO President George Meany, voted 14-8 to make an endorsement and then cast that endorsement by a 17-5 count to the Democrats.

The decision was steered by a solid bloc of leaders of former CIO unions sparked by former CIO Chief Walter Reuther. He had been instrumental at the Democratic convention in getting Stevenson nominated.

REUTHER'S CLIQUE persuaded a sprinkling of former AFL union locals to go along, while eight leaders of former AFL unions opposed any endorsement.

Meany and Secretary-Treasurer William Schnitzler abstained from voting. Four other members of the council were absent.

The AFL-CIO leaders today called a meeting of their political operating arm, the Committee on Political Education, to discuss plans for marshaling votes for the Democratic Stevenson-Kefauver combination and for labor-endorsed candidates for Congress and key state offices.

No formal endorsements for the congressional and state races were to be announced, but the union leaders planned to go over the records of rival candidates and lay the basis for picking and choosing among contenders in major contests.

The 28-man AFL-CIO Council actually voted only to recommend a Stevenson-Kefauver endorsement to a meeting of heads of all 140 AFL-CIO unions in Chicago Sept. 12.

But Meany conceded this will only be a formality and said he hadn't "the slightest doubt" the larger group will concur.

IN VANCOUVER, Wash., where Stevenson and Kefauver met with political leaders Tuesday, Stevenson was described by his press secretary as "delighted" at the news.

In Washington, Vice President Nixon declined comment. There also was no immediate comment from the White House on behalf of Eisenhower.

Meany, declining to say how he felt about it all, pledged to support the decision wholeheartedly. But he declined to predict any Democratic victory in November, saying "I'm no prophet."

Meany had counseled for many months that the newly merged AFL-CIO steer clear of tying itself to any political party, saying he couldn't see much basic difference between the two major parties anyway.

In announcing the Democratic endorsement, however, Meany said the big labor organization was only exercising an American privilege to make a political choice.

Pittsburgh Win Reduces Margin For Milwaukee

Brooks Split Twin Bill, Now Trail by Game and a Half

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Are Dale Long and the rest of Pittsburgh's short-lived heroes to become Milwaukee's pennant block, just as the Pirates were to Brooklyn in 1954?

Brooklyn had edged to within a half game of first place in '34 and looked good and healthy with 10 games remaining against Pittsburgh in the last month and a half of the season. But the last place Pirates, who had lost 10 of their first 12 games with the Brooks, won five of those last 10, standing the Dodgers on end while the New York Giants copped the flag and the world championship.

The Pirates, who lost 12 of their first 18 games with Milwaukee this season, looked like the spoilers of old Tuesday night, coming from behind as Long hit a three-run homer to beat the Braves 5-4 and trim their National League lead to 1 1/2 games over the Dodgers.

And except for the fact Brooklyn was playing a doubleheader in the only major league park without lights, the Dodgers might have been only a half game shy of the Braves today. The Brooks split the twinnish with Chicago's Cubs, winning the opener 6-4 on three ninth-inning runs, but losing the nightcap 4-3 when play was halted after 7 1/2 innings by darkness.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle belted his 45th home run in New York's 4-0 victory over Kansas City in a game held to six innings by rain. The Yankees regained an eight game first place bulge as Cleveland lost at Baltimore 1-0. Chicago's White Sox split a pair with Washington, winning 5-3 after a 6-2 defeat. Detroit defeated Boston 6-3.

Long's poke triggered a four-run seventh that tied the score for the Bucs after Warren Spahn, seeking his 199th major league victory, had retired two men in the frame. Five straight hits set things up for the Pirates against the veteran southpaw. Dick Groat's infield single scored the clincher against rookie Bob Trowbridge in the eighth.

Elroy Face won it in relief of Dick Hall, who was tagged for Ed Matthews' 31st and 32nd home runs.
Don Nocombe, working in relief for only the second time this season, won his 21st for the Brooks in the opener as Carl Furillo popped a fly that fell for a two-run single and broke a 2-2 tie in the ninth. In the nightcap, Gene Baker's 11th home run and a bases-loaded walk by reliever Ed Roebuck broke up a tie game in the seventh for the Cubs. Duke Snider, sidelined by a knee injury, pinch-hit his 36th home run.

There were 13 home runs in the National League Tuesday and Frank Robinson's second of the night for Cincinnati was the 1,000th of the season. Long's was 1,001—still 262 shy of the major league record the NL set last season.

The Cincinnati rookie slammed two, his 33rd and 34th, while Ed Bailey added his 23rd to account for seven runs as the Redlegs routed the New York Giants 11-1.
In the other National League game, Philadelphia dumped St. Louis 6-4.

John Bainter Elected This Year's Captain

Team Coordination Objective Of WHS Lion Football Drills

Chunky little John Bainter, quarterback and No. 1 passer and punter, will captain the WHS Lion football team this season.

He was chosen in a run-off election by his teammates after the first balloting had ended in a three-way tie.

Head Coach Fred Domenico explained that, under the present organization of the squad, the Lions should never be without a captain on the field. It would work this way:

Jeffersonville Wins Game at Troy, 14-4

Jeffersonville's baseball team chalked up its 19th victory of the season when it came back from Troy with a decisive 14 to 4 triumph over the team there. It has lost seven.

In the Southwestern Ohio (SWO) League, the Jeffersonville boys have a record of 12 wins and only three losses to top the standing with the end of the season rapidly approaching.

While the Jeffersonville team has played 11 games with non-league teams, it is admittedly the SWO that holds greatest interest, both for the team and for the fans in the community.

Its three SWO defeats have been at the hands of teams representing Blanchester, the Chillicothe Reformatory and Chillicothe Businessmen.

Next Sunday the Jeffersonvillians are to meet the Good Hope outfit in an SWO game, probably at the city park here, and on Labor Day they are to entertain the Chillicothe All Stars.

The game at Troy was never really in doubt after the third inning when the Jeffersonville boys tallied 5 runs to give them a 7-2 advantage.

They combined 14 hits, 8 bases on balls and 5 Troy errors to put across 14 runs.

Bucky James, a Jamestown High School graduate of last spring, sparked the Jeffersonville offense with a single two doubles and a triple in 6 times at bat.

Cincinnati Joins New Loop; Better Competition Foreseen

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Valley Conference voted unanimously Tuesday to admit Cincinnati and North Texas State as new members.

Basketball coaches of the two schools joined the league's other coaches here today and began drafting the 1957-58 basketball schedules.

Art Eilers, conference commissioner, said Cincinnati and North Texas will begin Missouri Valley Competition in the 1957 spring sports.

The two schools will strengthen the league's football situation, but they are not expected to find places on the schedule until 1958 or 1959. By that time there should be eight football members in the conference—Houston, Tulsa, Oklahoma A&M, Wichita, Drake, Bradley, Cincinnati and North Texas. St. Louis University doesn't play football and Detroit University is leaving the conference after this season.

Schwarberg said one of the main reasons UC left the Mid-American Conference it helped form was that "the conference wanted UC to play everybody in the conference."

"Several of the teams were not able to give UC too much competition. I think the general public way: Should Bainter be out of the game, Brown would take over and should both Bainter and Brown be out, Clarke would automatically assume the leadership of the team.

The coach pointed out that it is important to have a qualified and schooled captain on the field all the time to make the decisions—for example, to decide whether to accept or reject a penalty or to call for time out. He commented that there are some decisions that can be made only on the field and that the designated captain is the spokesman for the team.

The three field generals are to be given some special lessons, the coach said, in order that they may be able to make right decisions.

AFTER A LITTLE more than a week of practice, the Lions are "coming along fine," the coach said. The workouts have been strenuous, but this is considered essential by Domenico in order to get the boys in shape for their first game with Linden McKinley's Panthers here Sept. 14.

Wednesday morning's practice called for concentration on the Lion offense. While the linemen worked on the fundamentals of charging and blocking, the backfield went through its assignments. Domenico said the objective was to get the line to operating as a unit and that the timing could be achieved only through drill and the mastery of the basic principles of play.

Downfield blocking is a part of this overall coordinated team play, he added.

The linemen also hit the sled every day to perfect its movements as a unit.

The coach said that, under present plans, there would be little, if any shifting of players from one position to another; instead, he explained, replacements in positions would be by substitution.

size, Domenico said he felt this system not only could be worked out satisfactorily, but at the same time give more boys an opportunity to play.

Commenting on the spirit of the squad, the coach said with a broad grin that "these boys like to play football . . . they are having fun, but they are taking it all seriously."

One of his problems is to hold them down, he admitted. "We have been having some little scrimmages," he said, "but when a half is called, they come up and ask if they can't have just a little more."

He viewed this as a good sign. However, he said the contact phases of the practices would be taken up slowly and only as the boys are physically fit for it. He does not want to take changes with injuries and is convinced that physical fitness is a prerequisite to a sound squad.

Rory Calhoun Risks Gloves Chain Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Unbeaten Rory Calhoun of New York and Spider Webb of Chicago clash in a 10-round middleweight bout at Chicago Stadium tonight.

Calhoun, 22-year-old former dishwasher who will be seeking his 24th straight victory, was an early 9-5 favorite.

Rory has scored 12 knockouts and recently defeated Charlie Cotton in 10 rounds at New York. Before meeting Cotton, Calhoun stopped Willie Vaughn in eight rounds at New York.

Frank Gilmer, chairman of the Illinois Athletic Commission, said the five point scoring system will be introduced in tonight's fight. Heretofore, the 10 point system had been used. The winner now gets five points and the loser four or less.

Webb, 24-year-old former national collegiate champion from Idaho State, is unimpressed over the fact Calhoun has been made the favorite.

California Youth Signed by Giants To Bonus Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike Francis McCormick, star 18-year-old left-handed pitcher from Bakersfield, Calif., has been signed by the New York Giants to a bonus contract, reputedly for more than $50,000.

McCormick, 6 feet 2 and 185 pounds, pitched two no-hitters in winning 12 games and losing none at Makell High School in Arcadia, Calif., this spring. He added three more no-hitters to the list in American Legion junior baseball competition, and then in the Hearst newspapers sandlot tournament struck out all 15 boys who faced him.

Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, in announcing the signing, said McCormick would report to the team Friday. As a bonus player, McCormick must remain with the Giants for two years before he can be farmed out.

Every major league club was after the young Californian.

Robinson Raps Two Homers In Cincy Rout

CINCINNATI (AP)—Frank Robinson, who looks like a good bet for rookie of the year honors, has far exceeded the expectations of Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

The powerful young outfielder slashed out his 33rd and 34th home runs of the season Tuesday night tops for the Redlegs thus far—and accounted for four runs with them in Cincinnati's 11-1 triumph over New York.

When the season started, Tebbetts said he hoped to bring Robinson along gradually and would be satisfied "if he hits 15 homers this year."

The outfielder's hitting success Tuesday night was part of a general batting spree by the Redlegs, who pounded 14 hits off four Giant hurlers, including a three-run homer by Ed Bailey in the third. Robinson was in on both ends of the scoring, smacking his first homer for the first two runs in the opening inning and his last four-base belt ending scoring in the seventh.

Nuxhall went all the way for the Redlegs, but he had plenty of problems in early innings. He filled the bases in the second, third and fourth innings, but managed to squelch the rallies each time.

The only Giant tally came early in the third when Jackie Brandt tripled Red Schoendienst home.

It was an attendance milestone for the Redlegs, whose 11,632 fans broke the all-time record for attendance at home games. It set the attendance so far at 983,590, compared to the previous record high of 981,443, reached in 1939.

Robinson Still Shies From Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—The International Boxing Club and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson were no closer today on agreement of a title match with Gene Fullmer under sponsorship of the IBC.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the IBC, said early today, "we got nowhere but that doesn't mean it's out."

Gibson said the IBC had offered Robinson a fight in Chicago with home television but that Joe Glaser, Robinson's business manager, reported that the champ is cool toward a fight in Chicago.

Pittsburgh Win Reduces Margin For Milwaukee

Brooks Split Twin Bill, Now Trail by Game and a Half

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Are Dale Long and the rest of Pittsburgh's short-lived heroes to become Milwaukee's pennant block, just as the Pirates were to Brooklyn in 1954?

Brooklyn had edged to within a half game of first place in '54 and looked good and healthy with 10 games remaining against Pittsburgh in the last month and a half of the season. But the last place Pirates, who had lost 10 of their first 12 games with the Brooks, won five of those last 10, standing the Dodgers on end while the New York Giants copped the flag and the world championship.

The Pirates, who lost 12 of their first 18 games with Milwaukee this season, looked like the spoilers of old Tuesday night, coming from behind as Long hit a three-run homer to beat the Braves 5-4 and trim their National League lead to 1½ games over the Dodgers.

And except for the fact Brooklyn was playing a doubleheader in the only major league park without lights, the Dodgers might have been only a half game shy of the Braves today. The Brooks split the twinbill with Chicago's Cubs, winning the opener 6-4 on three ninth-inning runs, but losing the nightcap 4-3 when play was halted after 7½ innings by darkness.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle belted his 45th home run in New York's 4-0 victory over Kansas City in a game held to six innings by rain. The Yankees regained an eight game first place bulge as Cleveland lost at Baltimore 1-0. Chicago's White Sox split a pair with Washington, winning 5-3 after a 6-2 defeat. Detroit defeated Boston 6-3.

Long's poke triggered a four-run seventh that tied the score for the Bucs after Warren Spahn, seeking his 199th major league victory, had retired two men in the frame. Five straight hits set things up for the Pirates against the veteran southpaw. Dick Groat's infield single scored the clincher against rookie Bob Trowbridge in the eighth.

Elroy Face won it in relief of Dick Hall, who was tagged for Ed Mathews' 31st and 32nd home runs.

St. Louis University doesn't play football and Detroit University is leaving the conference after this season.

An athletics spokesman for the University of Cincinnati said joining the Missouri Valley Conference is "a step toward something better."

Bill Schwarberg, assistant football coach, said UC has been seeking some affiliation since it left the Mid-American Conference after the 1952 season.

Schwarberg said one of the main reasons UC left the Mid-American Conference it helped form was that "the conference wanted UC to play everybody in the conference."

"Several of the teams were not able to give UC too much competition. I think the general public way: Should Bainter be out of the game, Brown would take over and should both Bainter and Brown be out, Clarke would automatically assume the leadership of the team.

The coach pointed out that it is important to have a qualified and schooled captain on the field all the time to make the decisions—for example, to decide whether to accept or reject a penalty or to call for time out. He commented that there are some decisions that can be made only on the field and that the designated captain is the spokesman for the team.

The three field generals are to be given some special lessons, the coach said, in order that they may be able to make right decisions.

AFTER A LITTLE more than a week of practice, the Lions are "coming along fine," the coach said. The workouts have been strenuous, but this is considered essential by Domenico in order to get the boys in shape for their first game with Linden McKinley's Panthers here Sept. 14.

Wednesday morning's practice called for concentration on the Lion offense. While the linemen worked on the fundamentals of charging and blocking, the backfield went through its assignments. Domenico said the objective was to get the line to operating as a unit and that the timing could be achieved only through drill and the mastery of the basic principles of play. Downfield blocking is a part of this overall coordinated team play, he added.

The linemen also hit the sled every day to perfect its movements as a unit.

Pitcher Stars in Colt League Finale

CHICAGO (AP)—Major league scouts are keeping a sharp eye on Jim Woods, a 16-year-old right-hander who pitched and batted Evanston, Ill., to the National Colt League World Series championship Tuesday at Comiskey Park.

Woods limited Austin, Tex., to three hits in a 5-1 victory. He also drove in a run on a sacrifice fly and hit a 370-foot homer into the left field stands.

Rifle Shoot Opens

CAMP PERRY (AP)—The week-long national high power rifle championships open here today with a field of 1,400 shooters, the biggest since World War II. Two divisions Service rifle and match rifle—are included.

Columbus Wins

TOLEDO (AP)—The Columbus Bart's Bars captured the ASA Ohio softball championship here Tuesday night by edging the Dayton Parkmoor Drive-ins 2 to 1 in the finals.

Jockey Injured

HAMILTON (AP)—Gerald V. DeLong, 29-year-old jockey, was in "fair" condition at Mercy Hospital today with head and back injuries suffered in a fall from a horse Tuesday at Hamilton Raceway.

Cincinnati Joins New Loop; Better Competition Foreseen

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Valley Conference voted unanimously Tuesday to admit Cincinnati and North Texas State as new members.

Basketball coaches of the two schools joined the league's other coaches here today and began drafting the 1957-58 basketball schedules.

Art Eilers, conference commissioner, said Cincinnati and North Texas will begin Missouri Valley Competition in the 1957 spring sports.

The two schools will strengthen the league's football situation, but they are not expected to find places on the schedule until 1958 or 1959. By that time there should be eight football members in the conference—Houston, Tulsa, Oklahoma A&M, Wichita, Drake, Bradley, Cincinnati and North Texas.

St. Louis University doesn't play football and Detroit University is leaving the conference after this season.

An athletics spokesman for the University of Cincinnati said joining the Missouri Valley Conference is "a step toward something better."

Bill Schwarberg, assistant football coach, said UC has been seeking some affiliation since it left the Mid-American Conference after the 1952 season.

Schwarberg said one of the main reasons UC left the Mid-American Conference it helped form was that "the conference wanted UC to play everybody in the conference."

"Several of the teams were not able to give UC too much competition. I think the general public size, Domenico said he felt this system not only could be worked out satisfactorily, but at the same time give more boys an opportunity to play.

A workout on fundamental offensive maneuvers was on the schedule for Wednesday afternoon.

Commenting on the spirit of the squad, the coach said with a broad grin that "these boys like to play football . . . they are having fun, but they are taking it all seriously."

One of his problems is to hold them down, he admitted. "We have been having some little scrimmages," he said, "but when a halt is called, they come up and ask if they can't have just a little more."

He viewed this as a good sign. However, he said the contact phases of the practices would be taken up slowly and only as the boys are physically fit for it. He does not want to take changes with injuries and is convinced that physical fitness is a prerequisite to a sound squad.

Rory Calhoun Risks Gloves Chain Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Unbeaten Rory Calhoun of New York and Spider Webb of Chicago clash in a 10-round middleweight bout at Chicago Stadium tonight.

Calhoun, 22-year-old former dishwasher who will be seeking his 24th straight victory, was an early 9-5 favorite.

Rory has scored 12 knockouts and recently defeated Charlie Cotton in 10 rounds at New York. Before meeting Cotton, Calhoun stopped Willie Vaughn in eight rounds at New York.

Frank Gilmer, chairman of the Illinois Athletic Commission, said the five point scoring system will be introduced in tonight's fight. Heretofore, the 10 point system had been used. The winner now gets five points and the loser four or less.

Webb, 24-year-old former national collegiate champion from Idaho State, is unimpressed over the fact Calhoun has been made the favorite.

California Youth Signed by Giants To Bonus Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike Francis McCormick, star 18-year-old left-handed pitcher from Bakersfield, Calif., has been signed by the New York Giants to a bonus contract, reputedly for more than $50,000.

McCormick, 6 feet 2 and 185 pounds, pitched two no-hitters in winning 12 games and losing none at Makell High School in Arcadia, Calif., this spring. He added three more no-hitters to the list in American Legion junior baseball competition, and then in the Hearst newspapers sandlot tournament struck out all 15 boys who faced him.

Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, in announcing the signing, said McCormick would report to the team Friday. As a bonus player, McCormick must remain with the Giants for two years before he can be farmed out.

Every major league club was after the young Californian.

Robinson Raps Two Homers In Cincy Rout

CINCINNATI (AP)—Frank Robinson, who looks like a good bet for rookie of the year honors, has far exceeded the expectations of Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

The powerful young outfielder slashed out his 33rd and 34th home runs of the season Tuesday night tops for the Redlegs thus far—and accounted for four runs with them in Cincinnati's 11-1 triumph over New York.

When the season started, Tebbetts said he hoped to bring Robinson along gradually and would be satisfied "if he hits 15 homers this year."

The outfielder's hitting success Tuesday night was part of a general batting spree by the Redlegs, who pounded 14 hits off four Giant hurlers, including a three-run homer by Ed Bailey in the third. Robinson was in on both ends of the scoring, smacking his first homer for the first two runs in the opening inning and his last four-base belt ending scoring in the seventh.

Nuxhall went all the way for the Redlegs, but he had plenty of problems in early innings. He filled the bases in the second, third and fourth innings, but managed to squelch the rallies each time.

The only Giant tally came early in the third when Jackie Brandt tripled Red Schoendienst home.

It was an attendance milestone for the Redlegs, whose 11,632 fans broke the all-time record for attendance at home games. It set the attendance so far at 983,590, compared to the previous record high of 981,443, reached in 1939.

Robinson Still Shies From Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—The International Boxing Club and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson were no closer today on agreement of a title match with Gene Fullmer under sponsorship of the IBC.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the IBC, said early today, "we got nowhere but that doesn't mean it's out."

Gibson said the IBC had offered Robinson a fight in Chicago with home television but that Joe Glaser, Robinson's business manager, reported that the champ is cool toward a fight in Chicago.

Geauga County
 Seeks To Toughen
 Traffic Penalties

CHARDON (U) - Law enforcement officers of Geauga County are letting it be known in no uncertain terms they want the reputation of being "tough" on drunk drivers and those who cross the yellow warning line.

Three dozen mayors and justices of the peace, at a session in the Common Pleas Court room, unanimously resolved to apply a penalty of at least seven days in jail and $200 and costs on anyone convicted of driving while intoxicated.

Although there was no formal action on the type of penalty desired for crossing the yellow highway line—which warns motorists it is unsafe to pull out to the left—there was considerable discussion of going higher than the usual $10 and costs.

County Prosecutor James W. Dinsmore, who served as chairman, said that in the past some justices have given strong penalties and some have not.

He declared that "if Geauga County can get the reputation of being tough" there could be a reduction in traffic violations.

Sheriff E. John Phelps, who had called the meeting, said most of the persons arrested for drunk driving were from outside the county.

"Bird proofing" in the form of low-voltage, electric-pulsating wiring to discourage roosting birds was installed on New York City's renovated City Hall.

Fireworks Blast
 Burns Are Fatal

AKRON (U) - Severely burned in an explosion and fire at the American Fireworks Co. north of Hudson, Dominic Colivito, 74, died yesterday in St. Thomas Hospital.

Colivito had been working with powder in the manufacture of a display device, in a building about 10 by 14 feet.

An explosion wrecked the building, and in the fire which followed the man was burned over about three-fourths of his body.

8 Small Areas Are Rezoned

Unanimous Approval Is Given by Board

Several applications for rezoning residential areas to non-conforming commercial are expected to come before the Union Township Board of Zoning Appeals at its meeting at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the Township House at the fork of the Lewis Pike and Devalon Rd.

But, how many of them are uncertain. A member of the board said after last Saturday's meeting—the first one for a public hearing—that "we have had a good many inquiries, but all the formal applications were taken care of now."

At that first official meeting to act on rezoning petitions, eight applications were submitted and all eight were approved unanimously by the board. There were no protests to any of them.

Applications for rezoning from residential to commercial that were approved were:

Bob's Dry Cleaners on the CCC Highway about a mile east of the city;

Gordon Underwood service station and store just beyond the city limit on N. North St.;

Smith's Greenhouses on the CCC Highway east;

Clyde Miller grocery out N. North St.;

Arthur Matson's used car lot and salvage yard out N. North St.;

Dr. Richard Junk's small animal hospital on the CCC Highway east;

Roy Baker grocery out N. North St.;

Ted Anderson's service station out N. North St.

ALL OF THESE were established businesses, five of them just outside the city on North St. The other three also are established businesses and are out Columbus Ave. on the CCC Highway within two miles of the city.

Carl Will, board chairman, explained that owners of property have two years in which to ask for rezoning to take care of their businesses, but he suggested that they delay no longer than necessary. He also gave a reassurance that most of these applications were considered as routine and would receive immediate consideration.

He also repeated that the board has no disposition to interfere with any established business.

Frank Weade, a member of the board, said the applicants for rezoning appeared hesitant, at first, to bring their petitions to the board but later, when they saw how simple the procedure was, they came up with less restraint.

Osman King, secretary of the board, has been away on vacation for a few days, but will be at the Saturday night meeting, Chairman Will said.

Set Negotiations Friday on Long Telephone Strike

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Company and union negotiators have tentatively agreed to resume negotiations Friday to try to settle the 45-day-old strike at the Consolidated Telephone Co., Federal Mediator E. L. Phillips said Tuesday.

The meeting was scheduled for 2 p. m. at Portsmouth.

The mediator said the meeting was contingent on whether contempt of court proceedings filed by the company against 56 strikers are completed in time. A hearing is scheduled on the company charges Thursday morning in Scioto County Common Pleas Court before Judge James Lang Jr., of Adams County, sitting here on assignment. The company claims the strikers violated a court injunction restricting pickets.

The strike by some 600 members of the Communication Workers of America began midnight July 14 upon expiration of a one-year contract between the company and union. Disputes over working conditions have barred agreement on a new contract.

Frank Nixon Said Critical Again

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—Vice President Nixon's father is in critical condition from a stomach ulcer, his physician said today.

Frank A. Nixon, 77, had a "poor night," but is resting comfortably now, said Dr. I. N. Kraushaar. "He is back on the critical list," the doctor said.

"There was a recurrence of his stomach ulcer trouble and a possibility of hemorrhaging."

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

Your attention is called to a news article appearing in your publication on Aug. 23, 1956, in reference to the recent examination of the Fayette County Board of Education by the State Auditor's Office. The following statement appeared in that article: "Hilly said again that these were routine expenses authorized by the board and added that the board's legal counsel had checked the expenditures and found them in order."

Since, under most situations, the county prosecuting attorneys are legal counsel for the county boards of education, I feel that the quotation referred to needs clarification inasmuch as my office has not been called upon by the Fayette County Board of Education to check these expenditures and I have not seen, approved or disapproved any such expenditures. Apparently, Mr. Hilly was referring to some outside legal counsel.

JOHN S. BATH
Prosecuting Attorney
Fayette County

EDITOR'S NOTE: The attorney employed by the Fayette County Board of Education is Richard C. Addison of the Columbus legal firm of Butler, Addison and Werum. County Superintendent Hilly was referring to Attorney Addison in connection with the checking of expenditures.

Alabama Approves Segregation Laws

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alabama voters have approved a constitutional amendment to keep Negroes and whites in separate schools even at the cost of abolishing the public educational system.

The measure allows the state legislature to end public education facilities and give public funds to private schools.

It, and a similar amendment covering public park facilities which also apparently passed, are designed to provide a bypass of the Supreme Court's decisions outlawing segregation in schools and recreational facilities.

Counties with heavy Negro populations went overwhelmingly for the two racial measures. Those with few Negroes generally opposed them.

New Fire Siren Bought by City

Volunteer Force Being Strengthened

A huge fire siren which will dwarf the present one, both in size and volume, has been purchased by the city and will be installed on top of the City Building within a short time. The cost was $450 delivered to the city.

The new siren was authorized some time ago by the council and the purchase has just been made by City Manager James F. Parkinson.

The siren will have such volume that it can be heard distinctly in all parts of the city and even considerably beyond its boundaries.

Purchase of the siren was described as part of the program to increase efficiency of the present fire department by providing an alarm that will be heard by all volunteer firemen so they can respond when there is a fire of consequence.

It was announced that the number of volunteer firemen has been increased and that within a short time a course of training will be inaugurated. One of the best possible volunteer fire departments is the objective.

Under the old system volunteer firemen drew $1.50 for each call, but under the new program they receive $3 for each call answered, during the day and until 10 p. m. After 10 p. m. and until 6 a. m., the pay is $5 per call answered.

Other steps are being taken to meet requirements to lift this city from the seventh to sixth place in insurance rating, thus lowering insurance rates.

Phony Check Ring Explored By Officers

COLUMBUS (AP)—Claude Garee, 34, formerly of Marysville, has pleaded innocent to a forgery charge as sheriff's deputies continued to check into activities of an alleged phony check ring.

Garee entered his plea before Judge Alan Schwarzwald of the municipal court. He was bound over to the grand jury on a $25,000 bond.

Also pleading innocent to a forgery charge and waiving preliminary examination was Christine Kilian, also formerly of Marysville. Her bond was set at $500.

Two Franklin County men have been arrested for questioning in connection with operation of a reputed forgery ring, but no charges have been filed, Deputy Clyde Mann reported.

Mann said an investigation is under way to determine whether Garee was connected with the ring.

The phony check ring, Mann said, is suspected of passing worthless checks in Findlay, Bowling Green, Toledo, Bellefontaine, Canton, Kenton, New Philadelphia, Newark, Massillon and Uhrichsville. He estimated the gang cashed $100,000 in bad checks.

Garee was brought here from Perrysburg. He was arraigned there on a forgery charge and his bond was set at $5,000.

Burglars Visit Wert Elliott Home

The Wert Elliott farm home on the Palmer Rd., was visited by burglars sometime Tuesday, while no one was at home, and property valued at $49 was stolen.

Doors of the house had not been locked, Deputy Don Thompson, who investigated, said he was informed.

The Old Home Town

New Holland Lions Plan 'Ladies Night'

"Crystal Magic" and the influence crystal gazers have had on the history of the world will be emphasized in a lecture-demonstration by Mary C. Quinn, public relations supervisor for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Cleveland, before the New Holland Lions Club on "Ladies Night" at the high school auditorium in New Holland, Sept. 6 at 7 p. m.

While Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson was investigating burglary of the Wert Elliott home on the Palmer Rd., about 5:30 p. m. Tuesday he was notified from the sheriff's office that a complaint had been made that a drunk driver was headed toward where he was located.

Thompson went up the road a short distance and arrested Harvey Lee Jarrells, 19, E. Mound St. Sabina, for driving while drunk. He also arrested Max Groves, 19, Sabina, in the same car, on a charge of drunkenness.

About that time Thompson said his attention was attracted by a wobbly car headed up the highway. He said he halted the driver, William Dugan, 34, of 2201 Little York Rd., Dayton, and placed him under arrest for driving while drunk.

Leaving the two cars parked along the highway temporarily, Deputy Thompson brought the trio to Washington C. H. and locked them up.

Graves was fined $10 and costs on a drunk charge.

Sen. Bender Denies He Abuses His Franking Rights

COLUMBUS (AP)—U. S. Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) says his weekly news letter goes to relatively few people.

Bender made the comment in answering charges Tuesday that he used congressional free mail privileges in campaigning for re-election.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche, Democratic candidate to unseat Bender, called Bender's free use of the mails a "trespass upon the rights of taxpayers."

Fayette County GOP Women's Club Organize

The Fayette County Republican Women's Club was organized Tuesday evening at a dinner meeting in the banquet room of the Washington Hotel with representative from every Fayette County precinct in attendance.

Officers chosen for the county-wide organization were: Miss Garnet Huston, president; Mrs. Ruth Hire, vice president; Mrs. Sarah Whiteside, secretary, and Mrs. Donna Wagner, treasurer.

It was decided at the meeting to take a poll of every voter in the county and that each precinct Republican committee-woman would organize her own precinct group of workers, to aid in this project as well as in other future activities of the coming election campaign.

A spokesman for the group stated that there was unusual enthusiasm shown by those present in their desire to aid in the campaign work.

MRS. LILA BLACK, secretary to the Ohio Women's Republican Central and Executive committees was present for this meeting and discussed with the group the importance of thorough organization of each precinct as well as the duties of precinct committee-women.

Mrs. Black is a member of the staff of Attorney General C. William O'Neill, Republican candidate for governor in the November election.

Mrs. Madeline Hoyt, Sixth Ohio District committeewoman, also was a guest and discussed the matter of overcoming apathy which might become apparent among women voters during the campaign.

"ate," the senator said, "and I have not abused it. It is the one source of communication between members of Congress and their constituents."

Two Picked Up And Fined for Drunk Driving

While Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson was investigating burglary of the Wert Elliott home on the Palmer Rd., about 5:30 p. m. Tuesday he was notified from the sheriff's office that a complaint had been made that a drunk driver was headed toward where he was located.

Thompson went up the road a short distance and arrested Harvey Lee Jarrells, 19, E. Mound St. Sabina, for driving while drunk. He also arrested Max Groves, 19, Sabina, in the same car, on a charge of drunkenness.

About that time Thompson said his attention was attracted by a wobbly car headed up the highway. He said he halted the driver, William Dugan, 34, of 2201 Little York Rd., Dayton, and placed him under arrest for driving while drunk.

Leaving the two cars parked along the highway temporarily, Deputy Thompson brought the trio to Washington C. H. and locked them up.

In Municipal Court Wednesday forenoon Jarrells and Dugan each drew $200 and costs, three days in jail and driving right suspension for one year.

Sen. Bender Denies He Abuses His Franking Rights

COLUMBUS (AP)—U. S. Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) says his weekly news letter goes to relatively few people.

Bender made the comment in answering charges Tuesday that he used congressional free mail privileges in campaigning for re-election.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche, Democratic candidate to unseat Bender, called Bender's free use of the mails a "trespass upon the rights of taxpayers."

In Cleveland, Sen. Bender said: "The weekly news letter 'This Week in Washington', like those sent out by most members of Congress, goes only to a small portion of my constituents."

He added that he augmented the franking privilege with personal income in answering most of his constituents.

"The franking privilege is the most important right accorded members of the House and Senators," the senator said, "and I have not abused it. It is the one source of communication between members of Congress and their constituents."

He added that he augmented the franking privilege with personal income in answering most of his constituents.

8 Small Areas Are Rezoned

Unanimous Approval Is Given by Board

Several applications for rezoning residential areas to non-conforming commercial are expected to come before the Union Township Board of Zoning Appeals at its meeting at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the Township House at the fork of the Lewis Pike and Devalon Rd.

But, how many of them is uncertain. A member of the board said after last Saturday's meeting—the first one for a public hearing—that “we have had a good many inquiries, but all the formal applications were taken care of now.”

At that first official meeting to act on rezoning petitions, eight applications were submitted and all eight were approved unanimously by the board. There were no protests to any of them.

Applications for rezoning from residential to commercial that were approved were:

Bob's Dry Cleaners on the CCC Highway about a mile east of the city;

Gordon Underwood service station and store just beyond the city limit on N. North St.;

Smith's Greenhouses on the CCC Highway east;

Clyde Miller grocery out N. North St.;

Arthur Matson's used car lot and salvage yard out N. North St.;

Dr. Richard Junk's small animal hospital on the CCC Highway east;

Roy Baker grocery out N. North St.;

Ted Anderson's service station out N. North St.

ALL OF THESE were established businesses, five of them just outside the city on North St. The other three also are established businesses and are out Columbus Ave. on the CCC Highway within two miles of the city.

Carl Wilt, board chairman, explained that owners of property have two years in which to ask for rezoning to take care of their businesses, but he suggested that they delay no longer than necessary. He also gave a reassurance that most of these applications were considered as routine and would receive immediate consideration. He also repeated that the board has no disposition to interfere with any established business.

Frank Weade, a member of the board, said the applicants for rezoning appeared hesitant, at first, to bring their petitions to the board but later, when they saw how simple the procedure was, they came up with less restraint.

Osman King, secretary of the board, has been away on vacation for a few days, but will be at the Saturday night meeting, Chairman Wilt said.

Set Negotiations Friday on Long Telephone Strike

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Company and union negotiators have tentatively agreed to resume negotiations Friday to try to settle the 45-day-old strike at the Consolidated Telephone Co., Federal Mediator E. L. Phillips said Tuesday.

The meeting was scheduled for 2 p. m. at Portsmouth. The mediator said the meeting was contingent on whether contempt of court proceedings filed by the company against 56 strikers are completed in time. A hearing is scheduled on the company charges Thursday morning in Scioto County Common Pleas Court before Judge James Lang Jr., of Adams County, sitting here on assignment. The company claims the strikers violated a court injunction restricting pickets.

The strike by some 600 members of the Communication Workers of America began midnight July 14 upon expiration of a one-year contract between the company and union. Disputes over working conditions have barred agreement on a new contract.

Frank Nixon Said Critical Again

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—Vice President Nixon's father is in critical condition from a stomach ulcer, his physician said today.

Frank A. Nixon, 77, had a “poor night,” but is resting comfortably now, said Dr. I. N. Kraushaar.

“He is back on the critical list,” the doctor said.

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

Your attention is called to a news article appearing in your publication on Aug. 23, 1956, in reference to the recent examination of the Fayette County Board of Education by the State Auditor's Office. The following statement appeared in that article: “Hilty said again that these were routine expenses authorized by the board and added that the board's legal counsel had checked the expenditures and found them in order.”

Since, under most situations, the county prosecuting attorneys are legal counsel for the county boards of education, I feel that the quotation referred to needs clarification inasmuch as my office has not been called upon by the Fayette County Board of Education to check these expenditures and I have not seen, approved or disapproved any such expenditures. Apparently, Mr. Hilty was referring to some outside legal counsel.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The attorney employed by the Fayette County Board of Education is Richard C. Addison of the Columbus legal firm of Butler, Addison and Wernum. County Superintendent Hilty was referring to Attorney Addison in connection with the checking of expenditures.

Alabama Approves Segregation Laws

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alabama voters have approved a constitutional amendment to keep Negroes and whites in separate schools even at the cost of abolishing the public educational system. The measure allows the state legislature to end public educational facilities and give public funds to private schools.

It, and a similar amendment covering public park facilities which also apparently passed, are designed to provide a bypass of the Supreme Court's decisions outlawing segregation in schools and recreational facilities.

New Fire Siren Bought by City

Volunteer Force Being Strengthened

A huge fire siren which will dwarf the present one, both in size and volume, has been purchased by the city and will be installed on top of the City Building within a short time. The cost was $450 delivered to the city.

The new siren was authorized some time ago by the council and the purchase has just been made by City Manager James F. Parkinson.

The siren will have such volume that it can be heard distinctly in all parts of the city and even considerably beyond its boundaries.

Purchase of the siren was described as part of the program to increase efficiency of the present fire department by providing an alarm that will be heard by all volunteer firemen so they can respond when there is a fire of consequence.

It was announced that the number of volunteer firemen has been increased and that within a short time a course of training will be inaugurated. One of the best possible volunteer fire departments is the objective.

Under the old system volunteer firemen drew $1.50 for each call, but under the new program they receive $3 for each call answered, during the day and until 10 p. m. After 10 p. m. and until 6 a. m., the pay is $5 per call answered.

Other steps are being taken to meet requirements to lift this city from the seventh to sixth place in insurance rating, thus lowering insurance rates.

Phony Check Ring Explored By Officers

COLUMBUS (AP)—Claude Garee, 34, formerly of Marysville, has pleaded innocent to a forgery charge as sheriff's deputies continued to check into activities of an alleged phony check ring.

Garee entered his plea before Judge Alan Schwarzwald of the municipal court. He was bound over to the grand jury on a $25,000 bond.

Also pleading innocent to a forgery charge and waiving preliminary examination was Christine Kilian, also formerly of Marysville. Her bond was set at $500.

Two Franklin County men have been arrested for questioning in connection with operation of a reputed forgery ring, but no charges have been filed, Deputy Clyde Mann reported.

Mann said an investigation is under way to determine whether Garee was connected with the ring.

The phony check ring, Mann said, is suspected of passing worthless checks in Findlay, Bowling Green, Toledo, Bellefontaine, Canton, Kenton, New Philadelphia, Newark, Massillon and Uhrichsville. He estimated the gang cashed $100,000 in bad checks.

Garee was brought here from Perrysburg. He was arraigned there on a forgery charge and his bond was set at $5,000.

Burglars Visit Wert Elliott Home

The Wert Elliott farm home on the Palmer Rd., was visited by burglars sometime Tuesday, while no one was at home, and property valued at $49 was stolen.

Doors of the house had not been locked, Deputy Don Thompson, who investigated, said he was informed.

The burglars ransacked the house and stole an electric fan, a coffee making set and meat from the refrigerator.

Thompson spent sometime obtaining fingerprints in the house and clues obtained are being followed.

Miss Quinn traces the use of crystals throughout the ages up to its modern development for communications and other industries. She illustrates the decorative and ornamental attributes of crystal, too, with a fascinating look into the future.

A member of Ohio Bell's speakers bureau, Miss Quinn has been with the company nine years, holding previous positions in the women's employment office and in the general traffic department. She is a graduate of Western Reserve University and later became a graduate at Northwestern University.
